CHESTERFIELD (BURLINGTON COUNTY) FRIENDS' MONTHLY MEETING

MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1686-1800.

NOTE.—The following records were transcribed in 1881 for the New Jersey Historical Society, by John P. Hutchinson, Esq., of Bordentown, from the original manuscript volumes of Chesterfield Monthly Meeting. The manuscript gives all the facts in the records, but does not name all the witnesses at each marriage. The place where the marriage took place is given before the date.

ALAMOGORDO, N. MEX. 88310

(unnamed). He left his estate in Holland to his children, "if it bee recouered". (NYCW 1:373). The names of three sons, as such, appear on Queens County deed books. A census of Flushing in 1698 lists Derick^2 and Jon^2 Areson, both without families. (QCD B2:60,544; NYDH 1:437).

Children of Derrick^1 Areson and Mary ———:

1. (prob.) Sarah, b. abt. 1655-65; md. Caleb Shreve. (Shreve Gen. so states, and Burlington Quaker records tend to support this).
2. Derrick,^{2} b. 1660-74; md. 1700, Hannah Hedger; d. Sept. or Oct., 1710, in Flushing. (NYGBR 6:99; NYCW 7:471).
3. Thomas,^{2} b. abt. 167-; living in N. Y. City in 1699. (QCD B2.544).
+4. John,^{2} b. 167- or 168-; md. Mary ———; d. abt. 1742. (See Vol. 10. p. 28, and also below).
5. 6. 7. Unknown, but it is suspected that Mary, wf. of John Talman of Flushing, and the second witness listed at the marriage of Derrick Areson, Jr., in 1700, was one of the three. (N.Y.M.M. Mar. rec., p. 25).

JOHN^2 ARONSON (Aaronson, Arison) (Vol. 10, pp. 28-29; also above), left widow Mary, who d. in Waterford, Glou. Co., in Sep. or Oct., 1756. Her will, Aug. 20, 1756-Oct. 21, 1756, (invent. dated Oct. 4, 1756), n. dau. Elizabeth and several gr.ch'n; also "sister Rebecca Hutchin", which may be a clue to Mary's identity; or, Rebecca could have been a sister-in-law, and one of the daughters of Derrick Areson. As Rebecca Underhill (whether spinster or widow does not appear), she was md. at Chesterfield Friends' Meeting in 1707/8 to Hugh Hutchings, and the order of the witnesses' names on the mar. ctf. indicates a close relationship between her, John Aronson and Caleb Shreve. (NJA 32:15; CfdQR-orig.).

SARAH^4 ARONSON (V. 10, p. 30, line 24) and James Atkinson were md. 1756 and not 1758.

AARON^3 ARONSON (V. 10, p. 31, ll. 1-8). Strike out words "including Samuel and John Aaronson". Also, substitute for Aaron's ch'n the following:

1. Mary, b. 172- or 173-; md. 1752, Abner Woolman. (GMNJ 3:112).
2. Keziah, b. June 14, 1740; md. (1) 1760, Samuel Parr, Jr.; (2) after 1767, Joseph Burroughs; d. Aug. 24, 1775. (NJMB A-W:332; NJHSP 51:48; NJA 33:20,307).

3. Rebecca, md. (1) 1759, Abel Nicholson; (2) 1767, Isaac Burroughs; d. 1768. (2PaA 8:295; NJA 33:307-8).

——— ABBOTT (V. 10, p. 31). As to the origin of this line of the Abbott family, it should be noted that Morgan Edwards' History of the Baptists, pub. 1792, states (V. 2, p. 30) that about 1683 some Baptists from Cloughketin, County Tipperary, Ireland, incl. Thomas Abbot, settled in the vicinity of Cohansey.

On page 32, l. 5, change "is" to "in".

GEORGE ABBOTT (V. 10, p. 35). Change birth dates of these ch'n to read:

1. Benjamin, b. March 2, 1699/1700.
4. Sarah, b. April 16, 1707.
5. Rebecca, b. Aug. 10, 1709.
6. Samuel, b. Aug. 26, 1712.

REV. SAMUEL ABBOTT (V. 10, p. 35). Substitute the following for the list of his ch'n:

1. George, b. Jan. 29, 1734/5; d. abt. 1758. (HEQG 2:19).
2. William, b. June 4, 1737; md. Rebecca Tyler; d. Dec. 4, 1799. (HEQG 2:19; SaD A:224).
3. Rebecca, b. Dec. 26, 1740; md. 1760, Joseph Brick; d. Nov. 16, 1780. (HEQG 2:23,49).

ISAAC ABBAT wit. a quitclaim of Joseph Burt of Maidenhead, April 3, 1723. (HuCt 1:rev., p. 83).

JAMES^1 ABIT, b. abt. 166- in Somersetshire, Eng., acc. to statement of his gt.gr.son, John Abbitt; d. after 1754 at Huntington, L. I.; md. abt. 1690, to Martha ———. Dec. 14, 1693, as a resident of Newtown, L. I., he bought land there, and later made other purchases, part of which he and wife Martha sold by deed of Jan. 17, 1701/2. (NGQ 17:9; NTTR 286:180,502,527; 287:258). On May 10, 1701, as "Jeams Abbett, Tanner, of fosters meddo now Resident within ye Province", he had bought 100 acres of land in Hempstead, and he doubtless settled there around that time. In 1715 he, or possibly his son James, served in Capt. Tredwell's train band, and in 1718 recorded his earmark, which he had used "ever since he hath been a liver in Hempstead". It is noted that with his consent, the same mark was used by John Dosenboro, Jr. (Hemp.T.R., pr., 2:199,214; 5:164; NYHS 1896:497). He later moved to Huntington, L. I., where he and his sons owned adjoining tracts in the Halfway Hollow Hills section, and where he was still living as late as 1754. No contemporary list of his children has been found, and he may have had others than those listed below. (Hunt.L.R., Vol. 2; Bucks Co., Pa., Wills 2:77; East Hampton (L. I.) Library Mss.).

James² Abbitt, son of James,¹ b. abt. 169-, prob. at Newtown; d. 1765 at Amwell, Hunt. Co., N. J.; md. by 1724 to Cathrine Brown, dau. of Wouter Brown of Hempstead, b. 169- or 170-; living 1757. (NYCW 11:341). He sold his homestead farm at Huntington, L. I., in 1744, and moved to Amwell tp., Hunterdon Co., N. J. His will, Nov. 22, 1757-May 4, 1765, n. wf. Cathrine and seven ch'n, and makes bequest to Martha Skyock (?Skyort), or, if she die, to the three ch'n of Ellen Robins "by ye former husband". (Hunt. L. R. 2:838; HuCt 5:157; NJW:639J).

Benjamin² Abit, son of James,¹ b. 169- or 170-, prob. at Newtown, L. I.; d. 1746/7 in Makefield tp., Bucks Co., Pa.; md. 172- to Hannah Burroughs, dau. of John Burroughs, 3rd, b. abt. 170-; d. 174-. He lived in Huntington until 1737, when he moved to Makefield tp., after deeding to his father the property in Huntington where the latter was living. His will, Dec. 23, 1746-March 16, 1746/7, names seven ch'n, all minors, and appoints his father-in-law, John Burroughs, of Trenton, N. J., and brother-in-law, Thomas Whitson, of Huntington, L. I., as executors. (Hunt. L.R. 2:763,765; Bucks Co. Wills 2:77; Bucks Co. Deeds 8:95).

Children of Benjamin² Abit and Hannah Burroughs:

+1. James,³ b. abt. 1726; prob. md. Elizabeth Burroughs; d. after 1766.
+2. Benjamin,³ b. abt. 1732; md. Hannah ———; d. 1796.
3. Edith, b. 173-; prob. md. Thomas Sutton.
+4. Burroughs,³ b. 1735-40; md. (1) Edith (Kimble) Sherwin; (2) Elizabeth (———) Thompson.
possibly → 1739 5. Joseph, b. abt. 1736-43.
6. John, b. abt. 1738-44.
7. Hannah, b. abt. 174-.

Abdon² Abbit, prob. son of James,¹ was b. 169- or 170- on Long Island, N. Y.; d. late in 1755 at Pilesgrove, Salem Co., N. J.; md. Martha ———, b. abt. 170-; d. abt. May, 1759 at Pilesgrove. Because of the association of members of this family with descendants of James,¹ it seems certain that they were closely related, and probable that Abdon was the son of James. It should be noted, however, that there is no record to indicate that Abdon shared in the ownership of the family lands in Huntington tp., as did the other known sons of James.¹ The records of the First Church of Huntington, (printed), show the baptisms of seven Abbit children, although the parents' names are not entered. Fortunately, the mother of this family left a will, identifying all but one of the children as hers. Martha Abbit joined the Huntington Church May 31, 1739, and on March 8, 1745/6, Martha, wife of Abdon Abbit joined the Pittsgrove (N. J.) Presbyterian Church by Letter from Huntington, L. I. Joseph Abbit joined on confession on April 5, 1750. (PHSJ 9:73-4). On Jan. 9, 1756, Martha Abbett was made adm'x of the estate of her late husband, Abdon² Abett, dec'd, and Abdon³

Abett was her bondsman. The will of Martha Abit, of Pilesgrove, April 26, 1759-June 6, 1759, n. six ch'n and Elizabeth Thompson, but the latter received the same as Martha's daughters, so that she was probably a daughter as well. (NJW:970Q, 1036Q).

Children of Abdon² Abbit and Martha ———:

1. Martha, bp. Jan. 3, 1724/5; md. ——— Osborn.
2. Mary, bp. May 21, 1727; md. ——— Osborn.
3. Hannah. bp. June 29, 1729; unm. in 1759.
4. Joseph,³ bp. May 2, 1731.
5. Keziah, bp. March 18, 1732/3; unm. in 1759.
6. Elizabeth, bp. April 20, 1735; md. ——— Thompson before 1759. It is possible that she was widowed, and that it was she who was licensed to marry (2) 1764, her cousin Burroughs Abit, son of Benjamin.
7. James, bp. July 16, 1738; prob. d. y.
8. Benjamin,³ bp. at Pittsgrove June 14, 1747. (PHSJ 9:82).

Joseph² Abbett, son of James,¹ b. abt. 170-; prob. d. 1740 in Queens Co., md. Elizabeth ———. In 1735 his brother Benjamin deeded to him 200 acres of the family tract at Halfway Hollow Hills, but he was perhaps already settled on part of this land, as a 1734 deed for another parcel of it mentions Joseph's land as a boundary. On Aug. 27, 1740, adm. on the estate of Joseph Abbett of Queens Co. was granted to his widow Elizabeth, and that was presumably Joseph.² The only reason for suggesting Abdon³ Abbit as son of Joseph² is that it does not seem as though any other second generation man could have been his father. Joseph doubtless had other ch'n.

On Feb. 9, 1775, Daniel Abet, son of James, dec'd, of Hunt. Co., chose Benjamin Biles of Burl. Co. as his guardian. (NJMB A:43; NJW:946J).

Child of James³ Abit and Mary Maddock (?Mattock):

1. Daniel,⁴ b. 1755-61; md. by 1779, Susanna ———. (NGQ 17:9).

Benjamin³ Abit, son of James,² b. 172- or 173-; md. abt. 175-, Mary, dau. of William and Catherine Snook of Amwell, and had ch'n living in 1763, but no names are given. (NJA 32:281; 33:399). There was a William Abbot, "Jr." of Amwell, b. 1753-9, who chose Nathaniel Hunt as guardian in 1773, md. Agnes Edmunds in 1778, and appears on Amwell tax list of 1780, but whether he was son of Benjamin or his brother James is not stated. (NJA 22:1; 34:9; NJPRO).

William³ Abbott, son of James,² b. March 4, 1735, at Huntington, L. I.; d. Amwell tp. Jan. 13, 1793; md. Catherine ———, b. March 5, 1739; d. Feb. 2, 1823. He lived in Amwell tp., and in 1780 was taxed on 218 acres of land. His will, Dec. 28, 1792-March 1, 1793, n. wf. and six ch'n. The application of his son John for a Revolutionary War pension, contains a full list of his ch'n, some of whom d.y. (NJPRO; NJA 37:7; NGQ 17:9). His widow's will, Sep. 17, 1822-Feb. 28, 1823, n. 5 ch'n and 8 gr.ch'n. (NJW:3237J).

11. Rebecca, b. Aug. 3, 1779; d. unm. Aug. 4, 1833.

James³ Abit, son of Benjamin², b. abt. 1726 at Huntington, L. I.; d. after 1766; once said by A. S. Abbott, family historian, to have md. his cousin, Elizabeth Burroughs, and to have had the five ch'n listed below, but no authority stated. A James Abitt was in Cumberland Co., 1755-61, and may have been this James, who was a house carpenter, and later lived in Gloucester Co. (NJSCF:1651; NJW:98F; NJA 25:247).

Supposed ch'n of James³ Abit and Elizabeth Burroughs:

1. Jeptha,^{4} b. 1752; md. (1) Ann Ayars, (2) Mercy Ann Garrison; d. July, 1826. (Robt. Ayars Gen., p. 14).
2. John, b. abt. 1758; md. (1) 1784, Elizabeth Harden; (2) Rebecca Chattin; d. 1834. (NJMB A:273).

BURROUGHS^3 ABIT, son of Benjamin,^{2} was b. abt. 1735-40 in Huntington, L. I., or Makefield, Bucks Co., Pa.; md. (1) by lic. of Apr. 22, 1760, to Edith (Kimble) Sherwin, widow of James Sherwin of Chester, Burl. Co., b. abt. 1740; d. 1762; md. (2) by lic. of Aug. 25, 1764, to Elizabeth Thompson, widow, of Gloucester Co. (NJMB A-W:21; A:132; 1727/34: 138½). He was living in Greenwich tp., Glou. Co., when he adm. on est. of wf. Edith, May 21, 1762, but in 1770 was at Pittsgrove, Salem Co. (NJA 27:313; 33:6). No record of family.

ABDON^3 ABBIT, possibly son of Joseph,^{2} was b. abt. 172- at Huntington, L. I.; d. April or May, 1790, at Pittsgrove tp., N. J.; md. Oct. 16, 1745, at Pittsgrove to Elizabeth Blew (PHSJ 9:86). His will, March 31, 1790-June 15, 1790, n. 7 ch'n and 4 sons-in-law. The inventery was dated May 22, 1790. (NJA36:7). His son Abdon and sons-in-law Sutton and Atkinson were loyalists in the Revolutionary era, and their property was confiscated. (2NJA 2:470; 3:73,369).

Dear Linda:

I appreciate your early response to my 29 January 1982 letter. I agree that my proposed lineage of Joseph Newman 1762-1834 seems logical, but the solid proof of it still remains open to question.

Since you are working on the pioneer Abbott family I wish to share what I have. Please understand that most of my information comes from my father's notes made from an Abbott family diary. Also his interest was in the references made to Joseph Newman and his family.

These accounts begin with Joseph Abbott born 1739 in New Jersey, married 25 Dec. 1766 to Esther Osborn, New Providence NJ, Presbyterian Church record. Esther Osborn was born 1746 and died 28 March 1795, buried at Stelton Church graveyard, Middlesex County, NJ. My information agreed closely with yours on the eight children. Mary b.1767, Cloe b. 1769, John b. 22 Nov 1770, baptized at New Providence Presbyterian Church 30 Dec 1770, as were the two older sisters but I have no records of the other children's birth dates, except baptism dates. The last was in 1781. But I do know the Joseph Abbotts moved from New Providence to Middlesex County, NJ, after 1770.

Joseph Abbott moved to Virginia in about 1796, and his eldest son, John, was the first to arrive on the 500 acre land grant in now Franklin Twp. Only after his marriage in 1804 did the rest of the Joseph Abbott family arrive in Ohio.

The inter-relationships with the Joseph Newman come from my father's notes and I do not believe they conflict with your information except the Joseph Abbott first marriage date as 25 Dec 1766, from the church records. My father's notes do not include any mention of the second wife, Mary, except this: that Joseph Abbott 1739-1812 and other family members arrived in Eagle Twp, Adams County, Ohio, in 1804 and 1805. Apparently, they did not arrive at the same time. This may suggest the taking of a second wife in Virginia.

Concerning the transcribed land deeds of Clermont County, Ohio, this puzzles me. The Abbott land grant was in Eagle Twp, Adams County, never Clermont County, if my knowledge of early Ohio history is correct. Concerning the deeding of the land to the three sons in 1811, my father notes that the Abbott land was divided between the three living sons of Joseph Abbott, with the eldest son, John, getting half for his development efforts. If the diary account mentions "living" it would suggest that there would be 'non-living' as well. Also, in the marriage of David Newman's daughter, Sarah, to John Abbott, son of Silas, his notes refer to Silas as the 3rd son of Joseph Abbott. This would also suggest an older 2nd son. Perhaps Joseph, Jr., is their son or an adopted son from another marriage of second wife, Mary. Also, after looking at my father's notes I believe he has confused baptism dates and birth dates for the eight children of Joseph Abbott. It is clear that the 1st daughter was born in 1767 and the last was baptized in 1781, not 1791. John Abbott died in 1842, I believe. I remember seeing this gravestone some years ago.

Yours truly, Jim

ABBOTT

1 JOHN ABBOTT "came to America from England in 1735. In 1737, he settled on a tract of land in what was then Lancaster County, now Adams County (PA). Approximately, sixteen years later, he founded Abbotstown, referred to in the earliest records as Abbott's Town. He died in Abbottstown in 1786, and was buried on the cemetery of St. John Luthern Church where the inscription on his tombstone establishes the year of his birth as 1700.

"John Abbott married ALICE BERWICK, of Irish descent.

"John Abbott was one of many immigrants who came to America from the British Isles during the first third of the eighteenth century. Instead of settling down in a village or town in eastern Pennsylvania, he chose a site for his future home in an unbroken wilderness west of the Susquehanna River, one hundred miles from Philadelphia, the capital of his Province.

"The choice of his future home site reveals much about the kind of man John Abbott was. He was fearless; the dangers and hardships of a pioneer life held no dread for him. His request for a grant of land in 1737 states that he had been on the site and had already made improvements upon it. Without doubt, he labored long and hard to get some of his land in condition for farming, for one record pertaining to him says he was a successful farmer.

"He was farseeing. The site selected for his town was the crossing point of two early colonial roads; one north-south, ending at Baltimore, and the other east-west from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, the present Lincoln Highway. In the early days, Abbottstown was a main overnight stopping point for waggoners who transported goods in covered wagons from distant points to or from the Atlantic seaboard. Records reveal that there were at one time six hotels in the town that accommodated teamsters; and traditions persist that the square and streets of the town were often filled with wagons.

"John Abbott was philanthropic. He assisted neighbors in need of ready money by loaning them small sums from time to time. He offered building materials, found on his lands, free to purchasers of lots in the town he laid out. At death, his estate was comparatively small because it was depleted by constant assumption of debts contracted by members of his immediate family. Moreover, there is little doubt that he spent a sizable part of it in laying out Abbottstown; and that he lost considerable sums due to defaulting purchasers of lots.

"John Abbott was socially and religiously inclined. He found time to visit his neighbors and make friends of them, not-withstanding some of the former lived miles away from his home. He served as vestryman of the church to which he belonged, Christ Episcopal located at York Springs, PA., distant twelve miles from Abbottstown, at a time (1762 and 1767) when he was busily engaged with matters bearing upon securing a clear title to the 500 acres of land warranted to him by the Proprietary." MAFFETT FAMILY

John Maffett and Adam Maffett, brothers, were listed as residents and taxpayers living next to each other in Menallen Township, Westmoreland (after 1784, Fayette) County, Pennsylvania, from 1783 through 1786. In an application for a Revolutionary War pension filed by John Maffett in Harrison County, Kentucky, on Feb. 18, 1833, he stated that he was born March 8, 1744, near Philadelphia, and that at the time of the Revolution he was living half-way between Beesontown (later Uniontown) and Red Stone Old Fort (later Brownsville), Pennsylvania. This would place his residnece in what is now Menallen Township, Fayette County.

In 1790 the Federal Census shows John and Adam Maffett (misspelled Maphett) in Menallen Township, Fayette County, with families as follows:

John Mafett - 1male 16 and upwards, 5 males under 16, 2 females.
Adam Maffett - 1 male 16 and upwards, 4 males under 16, 4 females

JOHN MAFFETT: Sometime prior to Feb., 1804, John Maffett removed with his family to Harrison County, Kentucky. On Feb. 18, 1833, he applied for a soldier's pension, stating that he had served a total of seven months, as follows: One month in the fall of 1777 and kept in readiness to go guard Fort Fracas, about 60 miles from Red Stone Old Fort; two months in spring of 1778 to go and guard Jackson's Fort on the Ten Mile on the Monongehela River; four months at the latter end of August 1778, which included a march beyong the Ohio River, where they built Ft. Tuscaroras or Lawrence. Officers: Capt. Brenton, Cols. Crawford and Stevenson, and General McIntosh.

John Maffett died prior to Sept., 1833, when his heirs sold his farm of 52 acres, described as being in Harrison County, Kentucky, on the waters of Indian Creek. The heirs, all residents of Harrison County, were as follows: Thomas Maffett (b. July 12, 1774) m. Elizabeth Killiam; Henry Maffett; William Maffett (b. July 14, 1781) m. Nancy Killiam; Matthew Maffett, m. Dec. 9, 1813, Catherine Munson; and Sarah Maffett, m. Feb. 9, 1809, Clement Satterfield.

ADAM MAFFETT: Adam Maffett was born, probably near Philadelphia, ca. 1746. As indicated above, he resided near his brother for a number of years in Menallen Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania. In 1791 he moved across the state line into Ohio (after 1796 Brooke) County, (West) Virginia, where he is listed as a taxpayer until his death, which occurred on Sept. 18, 1799, as a result of a log falling on him while he was helping raise a house (Coroner's Report, Brooke County Order Book No 1, p. 58). His widow Charity Maffett and his son John Maffett were appointed executors of his estate, which was finally settled on Oct. 27, 1806 (Brooke County Estates, etc., Book 1, pp. 48 and 204).

As Adam Maffett died intestate, the names of his children can only be established by other court records, tax records, census records, and circumstantial evidence. Neither is it known whether Charity Maffett was his sole wife or a second wife, or whether she was the mother of all of his children, or perhaps the mother of the younger children only.

The known children are as follows:

1. Mary Maffett (b. Nov. 1, 1771, in Pennsylvania; d. Sept. 15, 1825, in Jackson Township, Brown County, Ohio) m. Adam Sellman. For their children, see JOHN SELLMAN OF MARYLAND AND DESCENDANTS, pp. 82, 83.
2. John Maffett (b. ca. 1774, in Pa.; d. Oct. 1830, in Harrison County, Ohio) m. Elizabeth ------. Children: John, Elizabeth, William N., Sarah, Mary, Harriett, and Charity.
3. William Maffett (b. ca. 1778)
4. Henry Maffett (b. ca. 1782, in Pa.; d. Jan. 1836, in Harrison County, Ohio) married first, April 23, 1815, Mary Lewis; he m. second, Jan. 7, 1819, Ann Johnson, who survived him. Children (probably by second marriage): John, Adam, Nancy, Sarah, Cynthia, Henry, and Matthew.
5. Elosia Selvada Maffett (b. ca. 1784; living in Harrison County, Ohio, in 1850) m. Conrad Creighton Hillegas (b. ca. 1784, in Pa.). Children: Tunis, David, William M., and Conrad.

JOHN McCORMICK, REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

JOHN McCORMICK was born July 9, 1756, in Ireland; he died January 23, 1861, in Brown County, Ohio. He is buried in the Winchester Cemetery, Winchester, Adams County, Ohio.

In the Revolution he served as a private in Captain James Semple's Company, 3rd Battalion, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, Militia, July 31, 1777; also as a private in Captain James Hemphill's 6th Company, 3rd Battalion, May 14, 1778. He was a Captain in the 3rd Company of Militia, May 10, 1780, under Lieut.-Col. Sam Irwin. Ref.: Pa. Archives, Ser. 5, vol. 6, pp. 206, 212, 216.

In a pension claim submitted August, 1841, John McCormick stated that he returned from the service to Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and was discharged at Franklintown, Pennsylvania. He resided in Cumberland County until 1790, when he moved to Fayette County. In 1794 he moved to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; in 1795, back to Fayette County; in 1797 to Washington County, Pennsylvania, and in 1818, to Harrison County, Ohio, where he resided for two years. At that time he removed to the vicinity of Winchester, Adams County, Ohio.

John McCormick married Christena Hillegas in 1794 at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She was born ca. 1774 in Pennsylvania, and was probably a daughter of John and Elizabeth Hillegas, a sister of Catherine Hillegas (b. Feb. 15, 1777; d. March 14, 1859, at Winchester, Ohio) who married Solomon Sparks, and a sister of Conrad Creighton Hillegas Sr. of Harrison County, Ohio, who married Elosia Selvada Maffett.

Christena (Hillegas) McCormick died October 27, 1846, "in her 72nd year", and is buried in the Winchester Cemetery.

The children of John and Christena (Hillegas) McCormick were as follows:

1. Sarah McCormick (b. August 18, 1795) married Tu^{N}mis Maffett.
2. Enoch McCormick (b. Sept. 8, 1797) m. Christina McNeil.
3. Nancy McCormick (b. April 15, 1800)
4. James McCormick (b. Aug. 3, 1802) m. Lucinda Maxwell.
5. Catherine McCormick (b. June 5, 1805) m. William Boatman.
6. Susanna McCormick (b. Aug. 18, 1807; d. July 26, 1849; buried in the Winchester Cemetery. She was never married.
7. John McCormick (b. September 22, 1809) m. Catherine Thompson.
8. Isaac McCormick (b. May 11, 1812)
9. Samuel McCormick (b. April 12, 1815; d. unmarried)
10. Conrad McCormick (b. July 1, 1817) m. Jane Porter.

6. Cynthia Maffett, m. Larkin Wells, Feb. 14, 1813, in Harrison County, Ohio.

7. Tunis Maffett (b. 1788) m. Sarah McCormick (see below).

TUNIS MAFFETT: Tunis Maffett was born ca. 1788 in Menallen Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania (Federal censuses of 1850, 1860, and 1870), and moved with the family to Ohio (later Brooke) County, (W.) Virginia, in 1791. Sometime prior to 1810 he moved with brothers and sisters to Jefferson (now Harrison) County, where, in or about 1811, he married Sarah McCormick (b. August 18, 1795, in Pennsylvania), daughter of John and Christena (Hillegas) McCormick. They continued to live in Cadiz Township, Harrison County, until about 1832, when they moved to Brown County, Ohio, near where her parents were living. Christena died shortly afterwards; she is probably buried in the Aerl or Wilson Cemetery in Eagle Township, Brown County, or in the Winchester, Adams County, Cemetery.

Tunis Maffett continued to live in Eagle Township for a number of years. While there he was an early member and deacon of the Fincastle Church of Christ, founded in 1840. Several of his children were also members of this church.

On March 6, 1846, Tunis Maffett married Hannah (Reynolds) Abbott, widow of John Abbott. She was a daughter of Joseph and Experience (Davis) Reynolds, early settlers of Brown County, and was born in New York state Sept. 1, 1787. Tunis and Hannah lived in or near Russellville until her death, June 3, 1854. He then for a number of years with his son-in-law and daughter, Jesse and Elizabeth (Maffett) Edgington, in and near Winchester. In 1870 he was living with a grandson, Simon Tunis Massie, in Jackson Township, Highland County. It is probable that he died in the 1870's, but his place of burial has not been located.

The children of Tunis and Sarah (McCormick) Maffett were as follows:

1. Temperance Ann Maffett (b. Oct. 6, 1812, in Jefferson - now Harrison - County, Ohio; d. June 6, 1897, in Jackson Township, Brown County, Ohio) married, Oct. 4, 1832, in Brown County, Anthony Shaw (b. July 9, 1808; d. May 14, 1895), son of Anthony and Sarah (Niles) Shaw. Their children were Francis A., Sarah A., Nancy J., Mary, Rebecca, and William T. Shaw. Anthony and Temperance A. Shaw are buried in a cemetery on the Arnheim-Ash Ridge Road, one-half mile east of the village of Arnheim.

2. Cynthia Maffett (b. ca. 1814) m., Oct. 18, 1832, William B. Massie (b. Nov. 25, 1808, in Adams County, Ohio; d. Feb. 27, 1868, at Fairfax, Highland County, Ohio), son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Lovejoy) Massie. He is buried in the Fairfaz Cemetery; she is buried at Frankfort, Kansas. Their children were Philena, Nancy, Henry, Benjamin, Simon Tunis, Spencer, Elvira, Mary M., Samuel Alfred, Ellis, Hyman I., Amanda, and Sanford Massie. Benjamin Massie, father of William B., was a first cousin of Gen. Nathaniel Massie, one of the Deputy Surveyors of the Virginia Military District, and the founder of Manchester and Chillicothe, Ohio.

3. Nancy Maffett (b. ca. 1815 in Harrison County, Ohio) married, May 4, 1837, in Adams County, Ohio, Arthur Chenoweth Shriver (b. Jan. 30, 1813; d. March 21, 1884, at Charleston, Ill.), son of Peter Shriver and his second wife, Martha Chenoweth. Peter Shriver (b. March 6, 1766, in Pennsylvania; d. July 12, 1849, at Winchester, Ohio) was a pioneer of Adams County.

4. Elizabeth Maffett (b. Oct. 29, 1816, in Harrison County, Ohio; d. May 28, 1888, near Winchester, Adams County) m., Aug. 4, 1836, in Brown County, Ohio, Jesse Edgington (b. 1812; d. Aug. 3, 1892, at Rome, Adams County, Ohio), son of Isaac and Margaret(Palmer) Edgington. Elizabeth (Maffett) Edgington is buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Jackson Township, Brown County, three miles southwest of Winchester. Jesse Edgington is buried at Rome, Adams County. Their children were Adeline, Alfred Lewis, (Dr.) Turner C., Franklin, Zerilda, Louisa, Albenia, Effie C., and Robert J. Edgington.

5. William Maffett (b. 1818, in Harrison County, Ohio) m., March 4, 1840, Harriet Sellman (b. 1821, in Brown County, Ohio), daughter of Henry and Susanna (Shaw) Sellman. Susanna (Shaw) Sellman was a daughter of

INTRODUCTION.

The compilation of this genealogy was started for the sole purpose of satisfying a personal curiosity as to the ancestors and immediate relative of the author's father-who and what they were-with no idea of extending its scope to include other branches of the Abbott family. The author, left fatherless at the age of five, grew up with but little association with, or knowledge of his father's relatives. As investigation slowly brought to light facts not known before, interest in the work grew, and gradually it was extended to include all the descendants of James Abbott, the first of the family in America, of whom any information could be obtained.

This work was begun about the year 1905, by the undersigned in co-operati with his brother, Charles L. Abbott, and until the death of the latter, on May 8, 1927, they exchanged data and kept the same records, though living a thousand miles apart; after the death of Charles L. Abbott, the work has been carried on entirely by the undersigned.

With one notable exception this is, so far as known, the only attempt that has ever been made to compile a genealogy of the family. William Abbott (Fam. 4) wrote out a record of the family history from James, the emigrant down to about the year 1790; part of this was taken from old family bibles, and part was tradition. After his death in 1793, this record passed into the possession of his son John, and finally into the hands of John's daughter Mary. Mary later desctroyed them for some unknown reason, but fortunatel they had been copied by her niece, Amanda Abbott (Fam. 39), who furnished a copy for this genealogy. This record contained some statements that were later found to be incorrect, but on the whole it was of very great value as a foundation on which to start this work.

This genealogy is the result of thirty-five years of diligent research among all available printed records, State and County Histories, Military and Marriage records, extensive correspondence with relatives, and other known sources of information. It is not claimed to be complete-it is freely admitted that it is not; it is also freely admitted that it may, and probably does contain more or less errors, both in names and dates. It has sometimes happened that names, dates or other data have been sent in by two or more persons and that they do not always agree; in such cases further efforts were made to verify such data, but when this could not be done, the data furnished by the person thought to be the best authority was accepted.

It is especially requested that corrections of any errors that may be found, as well as any additional data be sent to the author.

This genealogy is submitted with the hope that it may prove of some interest to the Abbott relatives.

Amos S. Abbott, Bethel, Ohio.

Revised 1941.

By a simple system of regeristing names-a figure in parenthesis denoting the number assigned to the family of the next succeeding generation, lines of descent may easily be traced backward or forward with equal facility.

THE NAME, ABBOTT.

The name Abbott is derived from the Hebrew ab, or father, through the Syriac abba. It had its origin in the monasteries of Syria, from whence it spread through the east and soon became accepted generally in all languages as the designation of the head of a monastery. At first it was employed as a respectful title for any monk, but was soon restricted to the Superiors. The name was sometimes applied to any natural son of the Abbot of a monastery.

The spelling of the name varies through every possible form-Abbott, Abbot, Abot, Abbitt, Abbit, Abit, Abbett, Abbet, Abet, Abbert, Abbitts, Abott, Abbod, etc.

The first known record of the name is that of Henry Abbod, of Oxfordshire, England, where it appears on the Hundred Rolls in the year 1273, during the reign of Edward 1st(1272-1307)

The first person of the name in America, as nearly as can be ascertained, was Elizabeth Abbitt, who was living in Jamestown, Virginia, Feb.16,1623(Hotten Original List)

Family 1(Abbott)

JAMES(2),b.County Somerset,England;came to America,and is first definitely identified as living at Newtown(now Elmhurst),in the year 1693, when he purchased a small tract of land from one Johannes Lowrenson, on December 14;on October 15,1694 he purchased a tract of twenty acres in the township of Newtown,probably adjoining the first tract, from Jonathan Forman.He appears to have lived on this Newtown land until January 17,1701,when he sold a tract of forty acres to one Cornelius Sleght,of "Bruckland"(Brooklyn),for 147 Pounds,and on the 10th.of May following purchased one hundred acres near Hempstead, Long Island,from John Jackson. In the Deed from John Jackson,"Jeams abbett" is described as a tanner living at Foster's Meadow.Foster's Meadow is about six miles west and a little south of Hempstead,and about ten miles southeast of Newtown.

The Deed from James Abbott to Cornelius Sleght is signed by James Abbett and Martha Abbett,his wife,both signing by mark.The only clue to the maiden name of Martha,the wife, is a statement made by Miss Phebe J.Valentine,of Cold Spring Harbor,Long Island,in a letter to H.H.Beeson of Ames,Iowa,dated 1933.Miss Valentine is a professional Genealogist of wide reputation;she wrote that the wife of James Abbott was Martha James.

The dates of birth of James and Martha are not known,nor are the dates of marriage or death,nor place of burial.As most of their children settled in New Jersey it is probable James and Martha may have followed them there.

In the "Experience and Gospel Labors of Rev.Benjamin Abbott," by John Firth,Benjamin himself says his grandfather,James Abbott,married after coming to America,but does not give the name of the wife

New England Historical and Genealogical Register,Vol.66,page 187;
Register of Wincanton,County Somerset,England,shows baptism of the emigrants who came to New England about 1651(Register 61,page 50). James Abbott,son of James,baptized Dec.29,1636;James went from Long Island to New Jersey(p188).

Flora K.Dickinson,489 Fifth Ave,
New York City,letter April 5,1941)

There can be but little doubt that this James Abbott of Wincanton is the same person who is mentioned in the Essex,Mass.records(p 2 2), Appendix,nor that he is our ancestor.

JAMES(3),m.Catherine,daughter of Wouter and Nettie Brown,of Hempstead, Long Island;removed to Amwell Twp.Hunterdon Co.New Jersey about 1725-1730. He d.1765;his will,dated November 22,1757,was proved and probated May 14,1765. Catherine was living when Will was made.

ISAAC(4),m.Sarah Kanon(Cannon?),on Long Island;removed to Hunterdon Co. New Jersey and d.there.

Daniel,removed to Connecticut or Rhode Island when a young man;no further record found.

WILLIAM,Removed from Long Island to some part of New Jersey,some say to Hunterdon County,others say Salem County.Nothing certain is known of his history or descendants,but there were some unidentified Abbotts living in Hunterdon Co.about the time of the Revolutionary War and later,who are believed to have been William's descendants.

Benjamin(5),arriving at age,he removed from Long Island to Hunterdon Co. New Jersey,where he m.Hannah,daughter of John and Mary(Jennings) Burroughs,who had come from Long Island about the year 1703-4,and settled near Trenton,Trenton then being in Hunterdon Co.After his marriage Benjamin moved back to Long Island,then about 1735-1736, removed to Bucks County,Pa.where,in 1739,he purchased a tract of land of 358 acres in Makefield Twp.from James Journey,for 400 Pounds. He died early in the spring of 1747;his Will,dated December 23,1746, shows that it was proved and filed March 16,1746,which is evidently an error as the date in the Will is spelled out in full(1746). Benjamin died of Smallpox,and Hannah died six weeks later,though exact dates are not known.

Elizabeth,m.as second wife,Thomas Whitson,a Quaker,Westbury,Long Island, whose first wife was Deborah Feeks.Thomas was b.1689,on Lonh Island, the son of Thomas and Martha(Jones)Whitson,prominent Quakers. Thomas and Elizabeth removed to Hunterdon Co.New Jersey,1747,and both died there.His Will,dated March 5,1761,names his wife,Elizabeth, as one of the Executors. N.c.
(Mr.Rodney Gilbert,R.D.2,Morristown,N.J.an authority on Quaker record in a letter to the author,dated Jan.21,1939,says Elizabeth and Thomas did not have any children;this agrees with the records of the Whitson family as well as those of the Birdsall family.)

-------------(Dau.) No record whatever.

(Rev.Benjamin Abbott(Fam.5),in his "Life",by Firth,says there were five sons and two daughters in this family.Mr.F.S.Crispin,a native of Salem Co.N.J.but now living in Philadelphia,says one of the five sons was Abdon,and that the numerous Abdon Abbotts who were later living in Salem County were all descendants of this first Abdon,who is said to have m.Martha-------.This appears to be somewhat doubtful but is given here for what it is worth.)

JOSEPH ABBOTT,OF BROWN CO.OHIO.

This Joseph Abbott is believed to have been of our Abbott line but the proof of the relationship has not been found.The fact that he served in the Revolutionary War in a Hunterdon county,New Jersey Company,and that there were no Abbotts living in that county at that time except those of our line,and that Joseph is said not to have been a native of Essex county,where he was married,would seem to indicate that he was, in some way,connected with our family.

Only the first three generations are recorded below,though additional data is in the possession of the author of this work.

Fam.B1(Abbott)

JOSEPH(B2), b.New Jersey,Aug.29,1739;m.(1),Dec.25,1766,Esther Osborn, of Essex Co.N.J. She was b.Sept.17,1746,d.Mar.23,1785; he m.(2), Feb.11,1790,Mary Cushman.He served in the Revolutionary War in Capt.Peter Dickerson's Company,3rd.Battalion,1st Establishment, from Hunterdon Co.N.J. also in 3rd.Battalion,2nd.Establishment, Continental Line.After the war he moved to Virginia,where he is said to have married Mary Cushman.In 1792 he moved to Brown County, Ohio,where he purchased 500 acres of land in Franklin Twp..About the year 1798,he moved to Bracken Co.Kentucky,where he remained a few years,then returned to Ohio.His first wife,Esther,was buried at Scotch Plains,Essex Co.N.J. Joseph was a millwright by trade. He was buried in the "Abbott" graveyard,on Straight Creek,Franklin Twp.Brown Co.Ohio.

(The Virginia Census for 1782 lists a Joseph Abbott as living in Halifax county,being the head of a family of 14,and the owner of three slaves)

"Joseph Abbott was born May 29,1739,and his wife Esther Abbott,Sept. 17,1746,and there were born to them 8 children,,,,,,Joseph Abbott moved from New Jersey to Virginia,served in the Continental Army during the Revolution,and shortly after the war,in company with Greer Brown, who had also been a soldier,came to Straight Creek and located 1000 acres of Virginia Military Land in one body,each taking 500 acres.This land lies in the south central part of Franklin Twp.on both sides of Straight Creek,and embraces some of the best land in Brown County. Mr.Abbott went back to Virginia and worked at his trade(Being a millwright)for some years,then moved to Kentucky,and about 1804 came back to Straight Creek,where his son John already was,and with the rest of the family,except Eunice,who had married a Mr.Lake and moved to northern Ohio,and settled where John E.Brown now lives,where he remained until his death.He is buried in what is known as the "Abbott" grave yard."

Dear Sir:-

I do not think that Joseph Abbott lived in what is now Essex County at all. The records of the Presbyterian church of Turkey (now New Providence), or rather records kept by the pastor of that church, show that in 1769 Joseph Abbots paid a church "Rate" of eight shillings, eight pence. A list of members about 1768 shows Joseph Abbot and wife, also that Joseph Abbotts and Esther Osborn were married Dec. 25,1766, and had children baptized as follows:

1767,Oct.4,Mary	1770,Dec.30,John
1769,Mar.19,Cloe	1774,Nov.27,Rachel

Buried in the Cemetery at Scotch Plains, near the Osborns, is Esther, wife of Joseph Abbot, who died Mar.28,1785 in her 39th.year. A penciled note im Rev.E.F.Hatfield's annotated copy of Littell, adds that Rebecca, daughter of Joseph Abbott was born Sept.11,1771.

Dear Mrs. Bloys:

Your several letters and accompanying genealogical documentations in the past months have been most interesting. I have spent many hours trying to analyze them. Your efforts may have been fruitful.

I feel that Joseph Newman (1762-1834) is Joseph, son of John, and John is the eldest son of John and Deliverance Newman. He is also likely to be the nephew mentioned in the 1795 Will of Emanuel and Ann Newman. Therefore, his brothers were John, Jeremiah b. 15 Sept. 1760, and our Joseph b. 22 Jan. 1762. His father is likely to be the eldest son named John mentioned in John and Deliverance' 1768 Will. Therefore, his father's birth would likely have been between 1725-1730, since Deliverance and John (grandparents) estimated marriage date is 1725. His father, John, must have passed before the writing of the Emanuel and Ann Newman Will in 1795. Joseph, son of John and John, son of John, are so listed in some of the tax assessment lists in the 1790's. This makes sense if their father, John, was dead at that time. Also the 1768 and 1795 Wills strongly suggest that the three nephews are a part of the heirs of the estate passed by John and Deliverance through their eldest son, John. The birth dates for Jeremiah and our Joseph are the correct ones in terms of generation spacing. Also, Jeremiah was a Justice of Peace, as was our Joseph in Adams and Brown County, Ohio. Jeremiah and Rebecca White Newman named a daughter after their grandmother. Also, our Joseph first showed up in Brown County, Ohio, in the late 1790's, shortly after the 1795 estate settlements in Monmouth County, NJ.

From these many accounts that I now have, it is about 99% a certainty that Joseph and Elizabeth Thorp Newman were born, grew up and married in Monmouth County, NJ. Perhaps the strongest evidence for this is found in the family records of the Thorps, the Browns and the Abbotts. I assume that you, along with Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Butterfield, are aware of the Brown and Thorp genealogical records in Monmouth County, but I wish to share some information from the Abbott family diary.

When I first became interested in our Newman family genealogical records of Brown County, Ohio, some 30 years ago, my first understanding came from my father, Roy L. Newman (1897-1979) and his friend, named Malcolm Abbott. Mr. Abbott had a family diary that began with accounts of Joseph Abbott and his son, John. According to my father's notes, Joseph Abbott was born in 1739, married in 1766 and served in the Continental Army. His family consisted of eight children (I have all names and birthdates) born between 1769 and 1791. His eldest son, John, was born 22 Nov. 1770 near Perth, NJ. After the war, Joseph Abbott was granted 500 acres of Virginia Military Lands in what is now Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio. But he had to move to Virginia to fulfill this claim. He did this after his wife, Esther Osborne's, death in 1795. However, he sent his eldest son, John, ahead to stake his claim in Ohio. He was accompanied by Joseph Newman. After their return, the family moved to Virginia in 1796. In the spring of 1800, John Abbott returned to build a cabin. He lived on the land claim for the next 4 years. In the spring of 1802 Joseph and Elizabeth Newman and family joined John Abbott. On March 4, 1804, Joseph Newman, as Justice of Peace, married John Abbott and Hanna Reynolds *. Joseph Abbott, now about 65 years old, along with other members of the Abbott family, joined John and Hannah in the spring of 1804.

* I know this does not agree with your account of Hannah Reynolds, but this is the Abbott account. Also, John and Hannah Abbott have a gravestone so labeled in the Abbott burial ground, Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio; plus, they had a family of eleven children with their eighth, John M Abbott, marrying Lettie Newman, daughter of David and Ann Brown Newman and granddaughter of Joseph Newman.

I feel rather certain that our Joseph Newman is a grandson of John and Deliverance Newman, but we need to know more about his father, John, the eldest son...his marriage, his birth and his death. Also, if this lineage is correct, then his two brothers, Jeremiah and John, plus their family records might help prove or disprove this lineage.

As for other family legends, such as Joseph Newman's father being David who served in the Continental Army, this may be just legend. After all, family accounts can be mixed after several generations removed by hundreds of miles. Perhaps the David legend refers to David, the younger son of John and Deliverance. In any case, I feel that our problem now is one of disproving this lineage rather than proving it.

Yours truly,

Jim Newman

Dear Mr. Newman,

504 Enclosed a xerox of Daniel & Rebecca Newman's divorce and you can see it does say "her father's house".

The death record Br. Co., O. Bk 2 lists Florence Newman b. & d. Lewis Twp. Br. Co., O. d. 14 Aug. 1892 aged 1 yr 5 mo. 15 ds.

Abstracting the case docket 1630 of David Newman Jr. vs Elizabeth Newman widow & others, it concerns partition of Real Estate to regulate advancements among the heirs of David Newman Sr. dec'd. Charles Ousler Sheriff of Br. Co., O. rec'd this summons 24 Feb. 1860 & served the same on John Cochran guardian of the minors and David Newman and Ellis G. Newman by copy at their residence, and upon Elizabeth Newman widow of Abner Newman dec'd and Amanda & John Newman the 28 Feb. 1860. Summons commands Elizabeth Newman widow of Abner Newman dec'd. & John, Amanda, David & Ellis G. Newman chn & heirs are being sued by David Newman Jr.

Court case 15 June 1860. Real Estate partition 102½ acres Br. Co., O. Survey #685 Obediah Smith begining corner of David D. & John Brown's land SE corner. 1st tract.
2nd tract adjoining the above on the South, adjoining D. D. Brown's ld on S.E. corner, containing 10 acres in part of John Graham's Survey #2535. 3rd tract begining at D.D. Brown's S.W. corner & David Newman N.W. corner and Elias Abbott's S.W. corner thence with said Brown & Abbott's line etc. The partition results:
David Newman Jr. undivided 5/6 part of tract 1, and 7/8 of tract 2 & 3
John, Amanda, David & Ellis G. Newman 1/24 part each of the undivided ½ of tract 1 and 1/32 part of tract 2 & 3 subject to dower for Elizabeth Newman in the undivided 12th part of tract 1 and undivided 8th of tract 2 & 3. John E. Brose, Levi Dunn & Thompson Lindsay to assign dower.

In the petition Elizabeth Newman stated she is widow of Abner Newman dec'd, was 38 yrs. of age, entitled to dower as Abner died seized of one undivided 1/6 part of lands in this petition, her attorneys are Devore & Marshall, she waives dower assignment for a reasonable sum of money.

Feb. 23, 1860 David Newman says about 1851 his father David Newman Sr. died seized of the undivided 1/2 of 102 1/2 TRACT 1 acres of ld part of a Survey #685 Obediah Smith and the whole of tract 2 of 10 acres John Graham's Survey #2535, also the whole of tract 3. He also says his mother Ann Newman was the owner, in her own rt., at the date of David Sr's. death of the other undivided 1/2 part of tract 1 & entitled to dower in tract 2 & 3. In consideration of certain lands he & his sister Amanda release all rts. to tract 1 1/2 part to their co-heirs John, Amanda, David & Ellis C. Newman chn & heirs of Abner Newman dec'd. He says (David Jr.) his (Ann) mother has deeded him all her interest & estate in the whole of the lands in this petition. Also says David Sr. in his lifetime advanced real estate in Br. Co., O. to Abner Newman valued at $450

Much more, but this about covers all important data.

I find no Worstell plot in Old Georgetown, O. cem. for David, Abigail Worstell or Rebecca Newman, nor any burial Br. Co., O. No d. record 1867-1909 Br. Co., O. for Rebecca Newman.

Will keep looking for other data.

Sincerely,
Linda H. Wilson

Mrs. Lyle Anderson

Warrenton, Or 97146

Dear Mrs. Anderson:

In response to your inquiry concerning the parents of Joseph Newman (1762-1834), let me introduce myself as a triple great grandson of Joseph and Elizabeth Thorp Newman. My branch of the Joseph Newman family has been indigenous to Brown County, Ohio. I was born and grew up almost in site of where Great Grandfather Joseph first settled in what is now Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio, before 1802.

As for Joseph Newman's parents, I have been trying to solve that question for 20 years or more. I first thought Joseph came to Ohio from Virginia because of his close association with two other pioneer families...the Browns and the Abbotts...both securing continental Army land grants from the State of Virginia and located in Brown County, Ohio. But it is known that all three families, the Browns, the Abbotts and the Newmans were in New Jersey before and during the Revolutionary War.

I know from family records that Joseph's father is very likely to be a David Newman, born in the 1730's, maybe somewhere in New Jersey. His wife's name is not known with any certainty, but it could be Ann. Our family records in Ohio indicate Ann to be David's wife, but it is not clear to me or anyone now living or in former generations that I knew whether the name Ann was in relation to Joseph's mother. You see, Joseph's and Elizabeth's oldest son was a David (1792-1852), and his wife was Ann Brown Newman (1794-1863). Also, it is recorded by my double great grandmother, Rebecca Worstell Newman (1814-1880), wife of Daniel (1810-1849), youngest son of Joseph and Elizabeth, that the two oldest sons of Joseph and Elizabeth, David (1792-1852) and Abner (1798-1870) were named for their grandfathers. I have it well established that Elizabeth Thorp Newman (1767-1850) had a father named Abner Thorp (1731-1812). Further, my great grand father, David W. Newman (1834-1915), always said thatthe and his twin brother, Abner (1834-1912), were named for their great grandfathers who were Revolutionary War soldiers. We know about Abner Thorp (1731-1812) having served in the Continental Army from 1776 to 1781 from Monmouth County, NJ.

All of these past family references suggest that Joseph Newman's father was a David Newman. He probably lived in New Jersey and he may have been a Revolutionary War soldier. From these hints, I would suggest that an all-out search effort be made of the New Jersey state and county records in and around Monmouth County for a David Newman, born in the 1730's.

I would be interested in receiving your lineage or branch of the Joseph Newman family. I hope to write a family history sometime.

Yours truly,

James E. Newman

Dear Linda:

Thank you for the photocopy of the Rebecca vs. Daniel Newman divorce decree. The statement "fly to the house of her father" does not in my opinion disprove the family record of 15 January 1846 relative to her father's death. Several years ago Jack Frost helped me locate a deed recording of David Worstell's property in Georgetown around 1840 as I recall. No doubt the David Worstell estate still existed at the time of the divorce decree. However, I have never been satisfied with the information I have on Rebecca and Daniel Newman and the Worstell family in general. This is why I stated the birthdates, marriages and death dates as I have them in my 30 December 1980 letter to you.

Worstell likely came to the village of Georgetown before it became the county seat, around 1810 according to some historic accounts.

The marriage of Daniel and Rebecca Worstell Newman ending in divorce is a paradox to many marriages that are gala social affairs. According to family records of several sources, their 22 March 1832 wedding included a large number of guests for the times, including Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Grant. The Grants and the Worstells were supposedly friends. Both families came to Georgetown from similar areas in upstate New York according to some family legends.

Concerning the court case of David Newman, Jr. vs Elizabeth Vandegrift Newman, I was previously aware of this case but I appreciate the details of your search efforts. Again according to family records David Jr. is the youngest son of David Sr. and Ann Brown Newman, while Abner is the eldest. In about 1968, I searched most of the land deed records of the Brown-Abbott survey. You see, my father's (Roy L. Newman) farm joined the west line of this survey. This is a long story, beginning with a John Abbott, John Brown, and Joseph Newman. In fact, Joseph Newman was probably the first justice of the peace in Adams County, Eagle township, later Brown County, Franklin Township. He also did legal work on land deeds in said area for the Limestone Land Office, now Maysville. The land in dispute by his grandchildren in 1860 was passed to David and Ann Brown Newman. It is the David and Ann Brown Newman children (daughter-in-law Elizabeth Vandegrift Newman) and her children of Abner Newman (1818-1859) vs. David Jr. and Louisa Abbott Newman (1833-?), David and Ann Brown Newman's youngest son. This is only part of the land originally deeded through Joseph and Elizabeth Thorp Newman, John Brown, John Abbott estates.

By the way, there is an interesting sidelight that if Paul Rainey does not have his Abbott, Brown, Newman genealogy, I could construct it for him. His mother was a Flora K. Abbott, which related back to John and Hannah Reynolds Abbott, then through John M. and Violetta Newman Abbott.

Please state your fee up through your next report.

Yours truly,

Jim

James E. Newman

PS: If you continue your search on the David and Abigail Worstell family I share the following data. This information was among the family records passed on by my great grandparents, David W. and Caroline Henize Newman.

David Worstell born 15 April 1768, married 19 November 1790, died 15 January 1846; Abigail Pangburn born 29 March 1772, married 19 November 1790, died 5 March 1832. They had (8) children: Mary 1793, Elizabeth 1794, Joseph 1796, Sarah (married a Laycock) 1799, Nancy 1805, Samuel 1807, Rachel 1812, and Rebecca 1814.

According to grandfather David W. Newman there is a Worstell family plot in the old Georgetown cemetery. I have spent several hours looking with no success at identifying. I did learn that a church (BAptist ~~Methodist?~~) once occupied the area to the east end near the current fairground entrance off Route 125. Some records suggest that a church stood on this spot since the very early days of Georgetown. This was the Worstell family church. From my inspection of these areas in the cemetery where a church stood, I would guess that many of the early stones do not exist at this time.

Dear Wanda, Gladys, Ruth and Shelley:

At this memorial season, 1980, I wish to convey to you that my genealogical searches have turned up records that make you and your daughters elligible for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution.

You are the descendent of ABNER THORP, born 23 Feb. 1731, died 4 Dec. 1812. He served in the quartermaster corps of the Continental Army as a volunteer from Monmouth, New Jersey (Monmouth County). His descendents can relate to the DAR records of Ethelwynne (Antenreith) MacDonald - National Number 247548.

Abner Thorp married Eunice Brown in 1753. She was born 15 Nov. 1737, died 12 Aug. 1801. Their seventh child, Elizabeth, born 11 July 1767 married Joseph Newman 7 Sept. 1786. Joseph Newman, born 11 Jan. 1762, died 22 Jan. 1834. His wife, Elizabeth, died 9 Oct. 1850. Joseph and Elizabeth Newman arrived in what is now Brown County, Ohio, Franklin Township, before 1800. They are buried in Abbott cemetery, Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio. Of their 13 children, the last six were born in Brown County, Ohio. Their 12th child, Daniel Newman, born 25 Apr. 1810, married Rebecca A. Worstell, 22 Mar. 1832. Rebecca was born 5 Oct. 1814 and died 17 Dec. 1854. LW+TW 13 Jan. 1855 sod. 17 Jan. 1855 Daniel was involved in a murder charge in 1841 and left Brown County. He was reported to have died in the Mexican War are revealed from family records of Eva (Newman) Conklin, daughter of Benjamin Newman, son of Andrew and brother to Daniel. The Andrew Newman family moved to Pike County, Illinois in the early 1840's. Rebecca is buried in the old cemetery at Georgetown, Ohio, in the Worstell family plot.

Daniel and Rebecca Newman had six children. Their second childbirth was twin boys named David W. and Abner L., born 21 Oct. 1834. Both names are family names among several generations. David W. Newman is your great grandfather. He married Caroline Hennize 16 Oct. 1858. David died 1 Dec. 1915, and Caroline died 12 Dec. 1910. Both are buried at Shinkle's Ridge cemetery. David and Caroline had six children. Their third child, James F. Newman, born 30 Apr. 1866, died 22 Sept. 1922, married Myrtle Harris 22 July 1888. Myrtle was born 29 Mar. 1871, died 9 Sept. 1963. Both grandparents are buried in the Confidence cemetery, Georgetown, Ohio.

For the record, your parents were Roy L. Newman, third son of James F. and Myrtle. Roy L. married Lola Rae Schweickart 24 Aug. 1918. Lola was born 23 June 1899, died 3 June 1973. Roy L. was born 10 April 1897, passing 3 Dec. 1979.

I have not completed the Newman family genealogy beyond Joseph Newman (1762-1834). I have some evidence that his father was named David Newman, born around 1735 in New Jersey. Also, Joseph Newman's mother was Ann, but there is no information on her family name.

As for earlier records of the Thorp family, the parents of Abner Thorp were Daniel and Elizabeth Thorp. Daniel was born 1 Feb. 1703 of Daniel and Abigail Thorp, coming to America in 1680. Eunice (Brown) Thorp's parents were Andrew Brown, born 3 Sept. 1705, whose wife was Sarah, but no family name available. Andrew Brown was the youngest of six children of George Brown and Annabel (Gordon) Brown. George Brown was born in Leith, Scotland, in 1664 and died 18 Feb. 1717. Annabel was born near Leith, Scotland, in 1661. They came to America in 1685 on the ship Henry Francis.

This is all I have at this time. I am making several copies for other family members.

Best wishes always. Jim James E. Newman

Newman family early settlers

The surname of Newman was among the first 100 of the most commonly occurring family names in early colonial America. Newman immigrants show up in colonial records as early as 1618 in Virginia and 1630 in Massachusetts. Hundreds of immigrants with this surname arrived between 1650 and 1750. For this reason Newman family genealogical records are difficult to ascertain in pre - Revolutionary War colonial times.

However, there are some historic events that influenced early colonial immigration patterns. The Puritans came to New England colonies for religious reasons. Early Puritan immigrants were nearly 100% Protestant, which in reality excluded both the Church of England (Anglican) and the Roman Catholic Church. In contrast, the Cavaliers of Virginia were normally Anglican and loyal to the monarchy. Also, it should be remembered that Catholicism was still the major practicing faith in England during the 1600's and early 1700's.

Colonial immigrants with the surname Newman conform to these historic turmoil patterns very well. Those arriving in the New England colonies came between 1630 and 1700. They were mostly Prostestant Puritans. They followed the professions of education and the ministry for the most part.

The Newmans of Virginia were Anglican, if church-affiliated, arriving in largest numbers between 1650 and 1680. Later most of the frontier families turned to Methodism. They were generally farmers or followed the building trades. Newman immigrants of the Roman Catholic faith generally arrived after 1700 in Maryland, Pennsylvania, and New York. They were more urban-oriented and many began their colonial life in New York City, Philadelphia, and Baltimore.

Certainly, Joseph Newman (1732 - 1834) came from a Virginia Cavalier colonial background, as did the other first generation Newman immigrants of Adams and Brown Counties in Ohio.

The Newman family history has been submitted by James E. Newman, 1635 Potomac Ave., Layfayette, Ind. 47905, who was born in Brown Co., the eldest son of Roy Lee Newman, who was third son of James Franklin, b. 1866, the third son of David W., b. 1834, a twin son of Daniel, b. 1810, who was the youngest son of Joseph, b. 1762 in Virginia He was the second son of David, born in Orange Co. Va. abt. 1735. Newman has accumulated many more genealogical details on the Newmans of Adams and Brown Counties, and to a lesser extent in Scioto and Clermont Counties. The information will be shared with anyone seeking it.

Newman family early settlers

(submitted by the Brown Co. Genealogical Society)

The surname Newman was one of the very early pioneer family names of Brown County. It is English in origin. If spelled Neuman, or Neumann, it is considered continental, or more specifically, German, in origin.

For Newman families currently living in Brown County: if your grandparents or great-grandparents were indigenous to Brown Co., it is very possible that a Joseph Newman (1762-1834) is your great-grandfather 6 to 8 generations removed. He was among the earliest pioneers to settle in Franklin Twp. He arrived for the first time in the late 1790s. One or two years later he returned with his family.

* * *

Joseph was born Jan. 11, 1762, in what is now Shenandoah County, Virginia. His parents were David and Ann Newman. He grew up on the Va. frontier in what is now Hampshire County, West Virginia. His parents moved to Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in the early 1780s. He married, Sept. 7, 1786, near Uniontown, to Elizabeth (family name unknown). Their family consisted of 13 children. All lived to adulthood, a very unusual occurrence in early pioneer families.

Their first seven children were born before arriving in Brown County, but their last six, beginning with Joseph, Jr., Feb. 5, 1802, were born in what family records refer to as the Bridgewater community of Adams County, Ohio. Bridgewater was a very early community in Franklin Twp. before the formation of Brown County. It became extinct after about 1830.

Among the 13 children of Joseph and Elizabeth Newman, only four remained in Brown County to be considered in succeeding genealogical records. Sara Ann, the oldest daughter, married into the Ellis family, also an early pioneer family. The eldest son, David, married Ann Brown, daughter of Greet Brown, an early pioneer and Revolutionary War soldier.

Elizabeth, the tenth child, married into another early pioneer family, the Abbotts. The youngest son and twelfth child, Daniel, married Rebecca Worstell, Mar. 22, 1832, being double-great-grandparents of the author. The remaining children of Joseph Newman, with the exception of Joseph Jr., who passed away in early adulthood, married and emigrated west in the 1820s and 1830s. (to be continued next month).

OLD CITIZEN IS GONE.

Born In This County and Lived In Cedron Neighborhood.

David W. Newman, son of Daniel and Rebecca Newman, was born in Brown county, Ohio, October 21st, 1834, and died December 1st, 1915, aged 81 years, 1 month and 10 days. He was one of a family of 6 children, of whom one brother and three sisters have preceded him in death. One sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McConnell, of Indiana, remains to mourn his departure.

He was united in marriage to Miss Caroline Henize, on October 16th, 1858. To this marriage were born six children, five sons and one daughter, of whom four sons are living---Albert, of near Laurel, James, of Georgetown, William, of Felicity, and Ira, of near Laurel, with whom he made his home after the mother's death, which occurred December [illegible] with the Concord M. E. church at Cedron, Clermont county, about 50 years ago. He was always faithful to his church, and to his christian duties, and was esteemed by the church and all who knew him as a steadfast christian man, consistent in all his life, a man of unblemished character, industrious as a farmer, honest in his dealings, and pure and upright in his life, a faithful husband, a loving and christian father, who endeavored to bring up his children in the fear of God and in the way of righteousness, and true to all of the relations of life. His simple, earnest, christian piety was the conspicuous and crowning feature of his life, for above all things he was a christian man, and by his walk and conversation was a living witness for Jesus Christ the Lord of Glory and the Savior of mankind. He leaves one sister, four children, thirteen grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren to mourn his loss.

The funeral was held at the Shinkle Ridge church and the remains buried there.

Obituary

Ira L. Newman was born Aug. 5, 1880, to David and Caroline Newman, near Cedron. Ira spent most of his life around this area and his younger days around Felicity. He joined the Methodist church in his early life and in later years attended the church of the Nazarene.

On Jan. 20, 1904, he was united in marriage to Fannie Bartlett. Sorrow entered his life in that she passed away within a year. Later he was united in marriage to Myrtle R. Griffith on June 7, 1908. To this union were born three children. Of this family two have preceded him in death. His wife, in 1927, and his son in 1943.

In later years he remarried. On Dec. 22, 1953, he took Mrs. Catherine Davis to be his wife. After a short illness of about three weeks he passed away at Georgetown at the age of 77 years, 2 months and 12 days, on Oct. 17, 1957.

Surviving Mr. Newman are his wife, Mrs. Catherine Newman, of Georgetown; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Miller (Lettia) of Sardinia; Mrs. Lloyd Black (Fannie) of Hamersville, and five grandchildren.

in the late 1790's, a mill on the Abbott-Brown survey. This land was later owned by Allen Hendrickson and more recently, by Raymond Shaw. Joseph and Jacob were probably the early 1700's

The Joseph Newman family bible was printed in England in about 1750. There are several geneological records and diary type references including references to other Adams County relatives. ~~Also, several places and dates in Virginia are listed, including Westmoreland County.~~ From these rather incomplete records it is probably safe to assume that these early Newman pioneer families all in community.
that arrived in Adams and Brown Counties were related. Also, it should be remembered that Brown County was formed from what was originally western Adams and eastern Clermont Counties before 1810. Perhaps all these Newman families originally came to what they referred to as Adams County.

The Joseph Newman family was closely associated with the Abbott and Brown families who were also pioneers. Joseph Abbott, born in 1739, was in the Continental Army as was Greer Brown. The latter was about 20 years younger. They each received 500 acres on Straight Creek. They secured ~~x~~ 1000 acres in the same tract in what is now Franklin Township in 1792. John Abbott, son of Joseph, was born in 1770 and was the first to settle on this military land grant, about 1800. Joseph Newman had already explored this area in 1797 according an early Brown County history accounts, Later he purchased a tract of land south of the Abbott-Brown survey near what was later called the old county seat or Bridgewater. This community never grew and did not exist after about 1830.

There were several marriages between these ~~several~~ early pioneer families. John Abbott married a Hannah Reynolds, of ~~a~~ the pioneer family in Jackson Township, in 1804. Thes married was preformed by Joseph Newman the civil officer of then western part of Adams County. They had 11 children. Their son, John M., married Lettie Newman, the daughter of David Newman, in 1836. David Newman was the oldest son of Joseph. John M. Abbott moved to Indiana in about 18~~50~~40 joining some other family members that moved west in the1830's and 40's ~~and 50's.~~ David Newman, eldest son of Joseph Newman, married Ann Brown, eldest daughter of Greer Brown in 1814. Among the first generation born in Brown County, there were several other marriages between these ~~several~~ pioneer families. Most of them moved west.

Both Joseph and son, David, Newman took a very active part in the early government ~~formation~~ of Franklin Township in the 1820's and 30's. Franklin Township did not exist until about 1821. Before this date it was part of Eagle Township and before about 1810 this part of Brown County was part of Adams County, a fact that must be appreciated when researching early Brown County history and records.

Joseph Newman was the first justice of the peace for Franklin Township in 1823. In 1825 to 28 he was constable, the township law officer of the time. In 1832-36 David Newman was township trustee and overseer of the poor. Before 1820, Joseph Newman was active in organizing an early church and school in the Bridgewater community.

No further record can be located of the Joseph Newman family ~~disappeared from the~~ in the old county seat of Bridgewater—Iron Bridge community ~~xxxx~~ after about ~~1860 with~~ the passing of the oldest son David in 1852. David, his wife, Ann, and some of their children are buried in the Abbott cemetery, Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio,

As near as this writer can determine, many Newman families living in Brown and Clermont Counties currently (1950-75) ~~(1960-70)~~ are related through either David W. or his identical twin brother, Abner L. Newman, sons of Daniel, the youngest son of Joseph.

These twin brothers both married and reared families including several boys. Abner reared his family in Clermont County, while David married in 1858 and lived a few years near Fincastle. Then he moved to the Georgetown community; he spent ~~spending~~ the remainder of his life in the Cedron and Laurel communities of Clermont County. These twin brothers are the great or great, great grandfathers of many ~~individual~~ Newman families with histories of over 100 years in Brown and Clermont Counties. Likewise, Daniel, son of Joseph, the original pioneer, are the 6th and 7th generation grandfathers, respectively. Both David W. and Abner L. Newman were farmers all of their active working years. David was a member of the Concord M.E. Church at Cedron.

Four of David W. Newman's sons married and reared families in Brown and Clermont Counties during the 1880's and 90's and early 1900's. His eldest son, Albert A., married Martha Annie Harris on Nov. 2 ~~14~~, 1881 ~~1880.~~ William Leander C. mar.rec. married Elizabeth Helen J. mar.rec. Johnson on March 1 ~~5~~, 1888. Br. Co., OH Vol 15:131 John Phatzing MG Louella married Jacob Pridemore on July 26, 1891, but she passed away at the age of 33 on February 7, 1899. Charlie C. died on June 19, 1896 at the age of 18, due to drowning in the Ohio River. The youngest son, Ira, married but lost his first wife; then he ~~re~~married Myrtle Griffith June 7, 1908, ~~in 1907~~ and reared a family of three children, a son and two daughters. Hubert, Letitia and Fannie.

At David W. Newman's death in 1915, only his youngest sister, Elizabeth McConnell remained, then living in Indiana. ~~Of his 6 children, 4 were living-- Albert near Laurel, William near Felicity, James near Georgetown, and Ira near Laurel.~~ His twin brother Abner preceded him in death lived in Clermont County most of his life. His older sisters, Mariah and Nancy, were close friends of the Abbotts of the same generation. These friendships were built during the 1840's and 50's when both families associated closely in the now Iron Bridge community. Sara Ann, his oldest sister, is believed to have died as an infant on July 28, 1834.

James F. Newman 1866-1922 grew up in the Cedron community as did his three brothers. He married Mirtle Harris 1871-1962 who grew up in the Feesburg community. Her parents and some family members are buried in the Duneden cemetery near Feesburg. He lived in the Cedron and Shinkle's Ridge community until 1904. Then he moved to near Georgetown where he resided until 1919. He moved to Jackson Township near Ash Ridge where he remained until his death in 1922. He was a farmer all his life.

Of the 6 children born to James and Mirtle Newman, four grew to adulthood. The eldest daughter, Florence born in 1892, died in childhood at the age of ~~1~~ 1/2 years. The eldest son, Elmer, born in 1890 died in 1905 at the age of 15. The four

~~THE NEWMAN FAMIL~~Y GENEOLOGICAL RECORD IN BROWN COUNTY, OHIO

The geneological record of the Newman family in Brown County, Ohio, by James E. Newman, born Dec. 22, 1920, son of Roy L. Newman, April 10, 1897, son of James F. Newman, April 30, 1866, son of David W. Newman, October 21, 1834, son of Daniel Newman, April 25, 1810, x~~1834~~, son of Joseph Newman, January 11, 1762, who arrived in what is now Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio, in about 1797 or 8. This arrival date is only an estimate, but several historical family records suggest that Joseph arrived in Brown County before 1800, probably from Kentucky by way of the Cumberland Gap from Virginia.

Joseph Newman came to what is now Franklin Township certainly before 1810. The Ohio 1810 census record, Ohio Library, Columbus, confirms this. His wife, Elizabeth, was born July 11, 1767, and they were married September 7, 1786. They had 13 children as follows: Sarah, born June 8, 1788; Eunice, May 17, 1791; David, December 25, 1792; Hannah, September 24, 1794; Suzana, March 30, 1796; Abner, September 27, 1798; Margaret, March 6, 1800; Joseph, Jr., February 5, 1802; Andrew, January 8, 1804; Elizabeth, September 14, 1805; John C., July 10, 1807; Daniel, April 25, 1810; and Kittury, May 6, 1812. I (James E. Newman) copied these records from the Joseph Newman family bible then owned by Fanny (Newman) Black, in November, 1962.

Both Joseph and Elizabeth are buried in the Abbott cemetary located in the Abbott-Brown 1000 acre survey surrounding the so-called Iron Bridge community. Joseph died January 22, 1834, and his wife on October 9, 1850. A broken headstone was located in the Abbott cemetary by the writer in 1965 with Joseph's name but nothing else.

Of this original family of Joseph and Elizabeth plus their 13 children, the following are accounted for: David, the oldest son, who married Ann Brown, daughter of Greer Brown, and lived and owned some of the Abbott-Brown survey land now (1960) owned by Frank Wilson and earlier by a John Brown (1880). Joseph, Jr., who died young on March 5, 1830, is buried in the Abbott cemetary. Andrew, who marrid Sallie Wells, ~~and~~ moved to Illinois in about 1832. Daniel married Rebecca H. Worstell. No futher records were found on any of the 7 daughters or the 2 other sons, Abner and John C. All of Joseph Newman's family was accounted for by number in theOhio 1820 census except for the 3 eldest daughters--Sarah, Eunice and Hannah. The 1810 census accounts for all family members except the oldest, Sarah, then 23, and the youngest, Kittury, not yet born.

Daniel Newman was the youngest son of Joseph, Sr., born on April 25, 1810, and married Rebecca H. Worstell on March 22, 1832. They had 6 children as follows: Sarah Ann, born February 26, 1833; David W. and twin brother, Abner L., October 21, 1834; Mariah A., October 16, 1836; Nancy P., September 4, 1838; and Margaret Elizabeth, July 27, 1840.

Daniel Newman was involved in a murder in the early 1840's and left Brown County. This point needs further investigation, but the event is not questioned. No doubt, he joined other family members who had preceded him in going west. After Daniel's departure, Rebecca Worstell Newman remained in Brown County. The Worstell family of the Georgetown community consisted of 8 children with Rebecca being the youngest. She was born October 5, 1814; died December 17, 1854. There is some question concerning this death date. The writer could not locate a confirming grave marker. She is buried in the old cemetary at Georgetown in the Worstell family plot. Her parents names were David and Abigail Worstell.

Br. Co., OH Vol 1:218 John Woods JP

David W. Newman married Caroline Hennize on October 16, 1858. He died December 1, 1915. His wife, Caroline, died December 12, 1910, and both are buried at the Shinkle's Ridge Church cemetary. The only marker that was present in 1968 was for Charles C. Newman, the fourth son. David W. and Caroline had 6 children as follows: Albert A., born February 2, 1860; William L., May 30, 1863; James F., April 30, 1866; Louella, July 12, 1868; Charles C., May 3, 1878; and Ira L., August 5, 1880.

James F. Newman and his wife Mirtle had a family of 6 children as follows: Elmer, born 1890, daughter Florence 1892 [illegible], Melton, born 25 April 1893, Roy L., born April 10, 1897, John R., born 30 March 1900, Gertrude L., born 25 Oct. 1902. James F. died September 22, 1922, and his wife, Mirtle, born 29 March 1873 died September 9, 1963. Both are buried in the Confidence cemetary at Georgetown.

Roy L. Newman, third son of James F. and Mirtle Newman, married Lola Rae Schweickart, on August 24, 1918. Their family consisted of 5 children: James Edward, born December 22, 1920; Ralph Wendell, born July 22, 1922; Wanda Jean, March 1, 1926, Gladys Naomi, March 21, 1929, and Ruth Louise, March 31, 1940. His wife, Lola, was the third child of Edward Daniel and Iona (Schatzman) Schweickart, born June 23, 1899, near Brookville, Kentucky. The death date of Lola Newman was June 3, 1973, and place of burial is in Confidence cemetary at Georgetown.

James Edward Newman married L, Persis Haas on July 17, 1949. His wife, Persis, was born February 24, 1925, daughter of Christopher and Eloise Haas. Their family consisted of 3 children: Shelley, born March 3, 1951; Roy C., born March 4, 1953; and Arnold H., born September 26, 1958.

Dear Linda:

In response to your letter of November 4, 1980, the Newmans of Hampshire County, W. VA., are not my ancestors. By this I mean the David and Ann Newman family of Hampshire County, VA, about 1780 to 1810 (?) are not Joseph Newman's parents. But they are very likely related to some of the other early Adams County, Ohio, Newman families.

I feel that a Mrs. Mary (Newman) Hayes, 5390 State Rd. 14, Ravenna, Ohio, 44266, could be interested in these Hampshire County VA records. She is a member of the Adams County Genealogical Society.

From my earlier searches, it is clear to me that there were several Newman families that immigrated into Adams County, Ohio, between 1795 and 1810. During this time Adams included the eastern half of Brown, part of Scioto west of the Scioto River, plus some of the present day Highland and Pike Counties. Some of these Newman families came from Virginia via Kentucky to Adams County, Ohio. They settled on Blue Creek. The Christopher Newman line can be obtained from Ms. Eileen Newman, 2112 Timlin Rd., Portsmouth, Ohio, 45662. Christopher came from Shenandoah County, arriving in Adams County in 1810.

Other early Adams County Newman names include Samuel, Thomas, John, Soloman, and Isaac. Some of these families settled on Ohio Brush and Scioto Brush Creeks in present day Adams County. In fact, the Newman cemetery near Rarden on Scioto Brush creek contains over 150 grave markers before 1850, many of them Newmans. I understand there are a number of records related to the pioneer Newman families of Adams County, Ohio, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

At this point, I believe the best chance of uncovering the Joseph Newman lineage (1762-1834) who settled in present day Brown County before 1802 is in New Jersey, Monmouth County. Among the several pioneer families of early Adams County, he was the first one in present day Brown County. (See attached letter from Mrs. Nelle Butterfield of Quincy, IL.) There are a number of searchers interested in the lineage of Joseph Newman (1762-1834) and his family members. In addition, these same searchers, particularly myself, are interested in any information on the 13 children of Joseph and Elizabeth Thorp Newman and their marriages and families. I need this if I am to write a genealogically originated history of the Joseph Newman pioneer family of Brown County.

Starting with what we know, you have all the birthdays of the 13 children (7 girls and 6 boys). Among the 6 sons:

David (1792-1852) married Ann Brown about 1814. They had a family of 4 sons and 3 daughters. Names of sons were Abner, Joseph, Greer, and David. One died young. Daughters names were Lettice (married John Abbott). A second daughter married Milton Abbott; the youngest, Elizabeth, yields no marriage information.

The second son, Abner (1798-1870): the only record suggests that he married in Cincinnati about 1820. No other information exists to my knowledge.

The third son, Joseph, Jr. (1802-18??) (62?) married Nancy Jolly ~~about 1823~~ 21 June 1821. Later he moved to Vermillion County, IN. in the 1830's.

The fourth son, Andrew (1804-1871) married Sarah Wells about 1825. Moved to Pike County, IL., in the 1840's.

The fifth son, John Collins (1807-1826) died in his youth. Marker in the old Abbott cemetery remained until about 1960.

The sixth son, Daniel (1810-18??) (48?) married Rebecca Worstell in 1832. Their children were Sarah Annn, who died as a young child; David W. and his twin brother, Abner L.; Mariah A.; Nancy P.; and M. Elizabeth.

Among the daughters (7) Sarah (1788-?) may have married an Ellis before 1810. Eunice (1791) married a Phillip Rice about 1810. Hannah (1794) married a Thomas Clark about 1812. Suzanna (1796) may have died as a child. Margaret (1800), known as Peggy may have married a man by the name of Shaw. Elizabeth (1805) married an Abbott, Kuttury in 1812; no record.

I am particularly interested in the descendants of Joseph and Elizabeth Thorp Newman that show up in Brown County records between 1810 and 1900, including any and all references to both sons and daughters, plus grandchildren.

Best Wishes.

Sincerely yours,

James Newman

Dear Mrs. Armstrong:

Now that the school year is completed, I have found the time to address your inquiry concerning Greer Brown. I have the following on the Brown family genealogy that relates to my family, the Newmans of New Jersey and Brown County, Ohio.

George Brown b. 1664, Lieth, Scotland, and d. 2-18-1717. He married Annabel Gordon, b. 1661 in Scotland. They came to America on ship Henry Francis in 1685. They settled near Perth Amboy, now Middlesex County, New Jersey, and are buried in a church yard near Woodbridge, NJ. They had six children. The youngest, Andrew Brown b. 9-3-1705 had a wife named Sarah, married in 1729, but no further information. Andrew and Sarah Brown had five children; one died young, named James. Their children were James b. 1-13-1731; Joseph b. 5-29-1733; Annabel b. 8-28-1735; Eunice b. 11-15-1736; and Greer b. 3-20-1739.

Eunice Brown married Abner Thorp in 1753. They had thirteen children. Their 7th child, Elizabeth is my triple great-grandmother b. 7-11-1767, married Joseph Newman b. 1-11-1762. They were married 9-7-1786 in Monmouth County, NJ. They also had thirteen children, their oldest son, David, marrying Greer Brown's youngest daughter, Ann. They were married in 1816 according to the Adams County, OH, records. Family records say this marriage was 1814 before David served a period of time in a militia unit during the War of 1812-1815.

Greer Brown (1739-1816) had at least two wives and three children. The first wife was Eunice Denaret, and the second was Sally Davis. I do not have any other information on these two wives. Of Greer Brown's three children, John C. was b. 4-3-1763, d. 10-30-1833; Lettice b. 1770, d. 7-21-1845, married Silas Abbott 12-27-1807; and Ann b. 10-28-1793, d. 11-18-1863. It is interesting to note the birth dates of these children; John C. and Lettice are much older than Ann.

It is stated in some Newman family records passed down to a great great granddaughter, Mrs. Howell Wheaton, concerning David Newman b. 12-25-1792, d. 10-16-1853, and Ann Brown Newman, that Ann Brown lived with her father, Greer, until he died in 1816.

This does not sound like he had a wife in the late years of his life. Further, Mrs. Howell (Janet Newman) Wheaton's family records state that Ann Brown Newman's mother died when she was a small child. All of this information suggests that John C. and Lettice's mother was Green Brown's first wife, while Ann's Mother was the second wife.

Concerning the relationship of the Joseph Abbott (1739-1812) and the Greer Brown (1739-1816) families, I feel that Meryl Markley expresses it rather well when she writes on page 103 in C. N. Thompson's "Collection of Brown County, Ohio, History", the chapter on early pioneer families: "In Franklin Twp dwelt the Abbott and Brown families, headed by Joseph Abbott and Greer Brown. These families married with the Reynolds and Newmans until they afford a real study in genealogy." Joseph and Greer, both Revolutionary War soldiers, are buried in the Abbott cemetery in the Iron Bridge community. I can add to this list of intermarriages other family names including the Shaws, Wells, and several others.

David Newman and Ann M. Brown were essentially first cousins since they had common sets of grandparents and great grandparents. In later generations' marriages among these families there are several second cousin marriages.

From genealogical studies of these families it is clear that the Abbotts, Browns, Newmans and Thorps lived in and around Monmouth County, NJ, before, during and immediately after the Revolutionary War. Members of these same families end up in what is now Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio, between 1800 and 1810. The Joseph Abbott and Greer Brown families came by way of Virginia and Kentucky, while the Joseph Newman family came by way of Pennsylvania and down the Ohio River. The same can be said for the Joseph Reynolds family.

Concerning Joseph Abbott's and Greer Brown's military service, the fact that their military land grants were 500 acres each is proof enough that both were of officer rank. They were probably officers in NJ militia units that served for short time periods when General Washington's continental army was in and around NY City and Philadelphia. We must remember that General Washington was a politician as well as a general. He made promises to many patriots who helped the cause. The fact that NJ along with several other colonial states did not have land claims west of the mountains likely explains why Joseph Abbott and Greer Brown went to VA after the Revolutionary War ended. Their land grants were given by the state of VA probably after military lands were exhausted in Kentucky, which occurred about the time KY became the fifteenth state in 1792.

The Abbott and Brown grants were authorized some time in the early 1790's through the state of VA. Deeds were drawn up on these military land grants after Ohio became a state in 1803. These deeds were issued by county governments. In the case of the Abbott-Brown survey, the first deed was likely written in what was then Adams County. A second was written in Clermont County. Then these deeds were revised and updated when Brown County was formed from Adams and Clermont Counties. The deeds are legal statements of ownership; they are not the land grant entitlements. Many history writers and genealogical searchers have land grant entitlements and deeds sadly mixed. Land grant entitlements are the legal documents that were issued to the original beneficiary only and are not normally recorded with county land deeds. About the only place such documents can be found is in libraries, museums and family records.

Concerning military records of that day, it is likely that few records were kept or preserved of local militia activity and organization. Current military records are kept by the Federal Government, which actually did not exist in Revolutionary War times.

There are many inconsistencies between family records, official records and historic accounts of most early colonial and pioneer families. This is particularly true of the Newmans, Browns, and Abbotts of Monmouth County, NJ, and Brown County, OH. Here are a few examples:

The first tax list for Brown County in 1819 lists Joseph Abbott and Greer Brown, yet Joseph Abbott, Sr., died in 1812 and Greer Brown in 1816. These could be sons, however. Joseph Abbott, Sr., did have a son named Joseph b. 1784. It also raises the question, did Greer Brown (1739-1816) have a son named Greer? since other historic accounts state that Greer Brown was twenty years younger than Joseph Abbott, Sr., and that Greer Brown was a son-in-law to Joseph Abbott, Sr. (Beer's "History of Brown County, OH", and the "Brown County Atlas", and official roster accounts of Revolutionary War soldiers buried in Ohio as published by the DAR). Also, Greer Brown is listed as being born in VA, 1739. Another account lists his being born in 1759. This raises the question, are there two Greer Browns...that is, father and son? Otherwise, some of these historic accounts are in error!

The family records are rather consistent. They state that Greer Brown was born 3-20-1739, married first to Eunice Denoret, second to Sally Davis; children John C, Lettice, Ann M. He died in 1816, was buried in Abbott cemetery, Franklin Twp, Brown County, Ohio. I have visited the Abbott cemetery several times, taken photos, read the dates on the tombstones, and studied the family plot arrangements. I believe these family records are consistent with the grave markers.

I am forwarding several gravestone photos and copies of letters from others concerning the Browns, Abbotts and Newmans of Brown County, Ohio.

Yours truly,

James E Newman

Dear Linda:

Your December 10, 1980, report on search findings of descendents of Joseph Newman (1762-1834) were very much on target. It is these kinds of confirmation details I need to supplement family records. I fully realize that many of the Joseph Newman children and almost all of the grand children left Brown County.

Your findings on the Rebecca Worstell vs. Daniel Newman divorce is of particular interest in my searches. The reported marriage date agrees with our family records but the divorce date was never mentioned. You note that Rebecca went to live with her father. This is likely in error. Her father was a David Worstell, born 15 April 1768, married Abigail (?) on 19 November 1790, and died 15 January 1846 in Georgetown according to family records. Abigail died in 1832.

On the specific subject of my double great grandparents (Daniel and Rebecca Worstell Newman), I feel that their birth dates, marriage date, the names and birth dates of their 6 children are correct from family records. In fact, it would be difficult for me to accept any information that did not agree. I have Daniel Newman's birth date as 25 April 1810 and Rebecca's birth date as 5 October 1814. Rebecca's death date is likely to be in the 1880's, but I do not have an exact date. Daniel Newman is reported to have left Brown County in 1847 and died in 1848 or 49 during the Mexican War. Any information confirming or disproving this information will be most welcome. Their children were Sarah Ann born 26 February 1833, died 28 July 1834; twins, David W. & Abner L. born 21 Oct. 1834; * Nancy Patricia, born 4 September 1838; and Margaret Elizabeth born 27 July 1840. I would be much interested in any information on Abner L. Newman's marriage and family. I have some, but it is very incomplete. I do not have any information on Mariah or Nancy, except that I do know the youngest, Margaret Elizabeth, married a McConnell and lived in Indiana. Any information on these family members will be appreciated. I have complete family records for David W. Newman 1834-1915 and his wife, Caroline Henize 1840-1909, including the stillborn of 1872.

Best wishes.

NEWMAN FAMILY HISTORY IN BROWN COUNTY, OHIO 1800-1975

It is rather clear that Joseph Newman was a very early pioneer in Brown County, perhaps arriving in the Straight Creek/Bridgewater community. He, along with Jacob Newman, settled on Straight Creek in what is now Franklin Township, in the late 1790's. Jacob built a mill on the Abbott-Brown survey. This land was later owned by Allen Hendrickson and more recently, by Raymond Shaw. Joseph and Jacob were probably related, but just how is not clear from records available to the writer. A Daniel Newman settled in Clermont County before 1820. This is the only record of the family name in that county before 1820. It is believed that there were other close family relatives in Adams County in the early 1800's receiving a land grant on Scioto Brush Creek near present day Rarden.

The Joseph Newman family bible was printed in England in the early 1700's. There are several genealogical records and diary type references including references to other Adams County relatives. From these rather incomplete records it is probably safe to assume that these early Newman pioneer families that arrived in Adams and Brown Counties were all related in some way. Also, it should be remembered that Brown County was formed from what was originally western Adams and eastern Clermont Counties before 1810. Perhaps all these Newman families originally came to what they referred to as Adams County.

The Joseph Newman family was closely associated with the Abbott and Brown families who were also pioneers. Joseph Abbott, born in 1739, was in the Continental Army as was Greer Brown. The latter was about 20 years younger. They each received 500 acres on Straight Creek. They secured 1000 acres in the same tract in what is now Franklin Township in 1792. John Abbott, son of Joseph, was born in 1770 and was the first to settle on this military land grant, about 1800. Joseph Newman had already explored this area in 1797, according to an early Brown County History account. Later he purchased a tract of land south of the Abbott-Brown survey near what was later called the old county seat or Bridgewater. This community never grew and did not exist after about 1830.

There were several marriages between these early pioneer families. John Abbott married a Hannah Reynolds, of the pioneer family in Jackson Township in 1804. This marriage was performed by Joseph Newman, the civil officer of the then western part of Adams County. They had 11 children. Their son, John M., married Lettie Newman, the daughter of David Newman, in 1836. David Newman was the eldest son of Joseph. John M. Abbott moved to Indiana in about 1840, joining some other family members that moved west in the 1830's and 1840's. David Newman, eldest son of Joseph Newman, married Ann Brown, eldest daughter of Greer Brown in 1814. Among the first generation born in Brown County, there were several other marriages between these pioneer families. Most of them moved west.

Both Joseph and son, David, Newman took a very active part in the early government of Franklin Township in the 1820's and 1830's. Franklin Township did not exist until about 1821. Before this date it was part of Eagle Township and before about 1810 this part of Brown County was part of Adams County, a fact that must be appreciated when researching early Brown County history and records.

Joseph Newman was the first justice of the peace for Franklin Township in 1823. In 1825 to 1828 he was constable, the township law officer of the time. In 1832-1836 David Newman was Township Trustee and overseer of the poor. Before 1820, Joseph Newman was active in organizing an early church and school in the Bridgewater community.

No further record can be located on the Joseph Newman family in the old county seat of Bridgewater/Iron Bridge community after the passing of the eldest son, David, in 1852. David, his wife, Ann, the former Ann Brown and some of their children are buried in the Abbott cemetery, Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio.

Both Joseph and Elizabeth Newman are buried in the old Abbott cemetery as well. Many of the graves in this old pioneer cemetery are unmarked. However, the author found some grave markers in 1965 that were legible enough to confirm these statements. Joseph was born in 1762 and died in 1834. His wife, Elizabeth, was born in 1767 and died in 1850. They are the triple to fifth greatgrandparents of many of the now living members of the Newman family in Brown County.

As near as this writer can determine, many Newman families living in Brown and Clermont Counties currently (1950-1975) are related through either David W. or his identical twin brother, Abner L. Newman, sons of Daniel, the youngest son of Joseph.

These twin brothers both married and reared families including several boys. Abner reared his family in Clermont County, while David married in 1858 and lived a few years near Fincastle. Then he moved to the Georgetown community. He spent the remainder of his life in the Cedron and Laurel communities of Clermont County. These twin brothers are the great or great-great grandfathers of many Newman families with histories of over 100 years in Brown and Clermont Counties. Likewise, Daniel, youngest son of Joseph, the original pioneer, are the 6th and 7th generation grandfathers, respectively. Both David W. and Abner L. Newman were farmers all of their active working years. David was a member of the Concord M. E. Church at Cedron.

Four of David W. Newman's sons married and reared families in Brown and Clermont Counties during the 1880's and 1890's and early 1900's. His eldest son, Albert A. married Martha Annie Harris on Nov. ~~14~~ 2, ~~1880~~ 1881. William Leander C.-marr rec married Helen Elizabeth J.-marr rec Johnson on March ~~8~~ 1, 1888.

James F. Married Myrtle Harris on July 22, 1888. Louella married Jacob Pridemore on July 26, 1891, but she passed away at the age of 33 on February 7, 1899. Charlie C. died on June 19, 1896 at the age of 18, due to drowning in the Ohio River. The youngest son, Ira, married but lost his first wife; then he married Myrtle Griffith on June 7, 1908, and reared a family of three children--a son and two daughters, Hubert, Letitia and Fannie.

At David W. Newman's death in 1915, only his youngest sister, Elizabeth McConnell remained, then living in Indiana. His twin brother, Abner, preceded him in death, having lived in Clermont County most of his life. His older sisters, Mariah and Nancy, were close friends of the Abbotts of the same generation. These friendships were built during the 1840's and 1850's when both families associated closely in the now Iron Bridge community. Sara Ann, his eldest sister, is believed to have died as an infant on July 28, 1834.

James F. Newman (1866-1922) grew up in the Cedron community as did his three brothers. He married Myrtle Harris (1871-1963) who grew up in the Feesburg community. Her parents and some family members are buried in the Duneden Cemetery near Feesburg. He lived in the Cedron and Shinkle's Ridge community until 1904. Then he moved to near Georgetown where he resided until 1919. He moved to Jackson Township near Ash Ridge where he remained until his death in 1922. He was a farmer all his life.

Of the 6 children born to James and Myrtle Newman, four grew to adulthood. The eldest son, Elmer, born in Jan 4, 1890, died in Oct 2, 1905 at the age of 15. The eldest daughter, Florence, born ~~in 1892~~ on May 1, 1891 died in childhood at the age of 15 months ~~1½ years~~ on Aug. 15, 1892. The four remaining children--Melton, Roy, John and Gertrude--grew up in the Georgetown ~~and Ash Ridge~~ communit~~ies~~y.

Melton married Maude Martin in 1910. They had a family of 5 daughters --Mary, Dorothy, Mildred, Hazel and Evelyn. The Melton Newman family resided in the Georgetown community during their life time.

Roy L. married Lola Schweickart in 1918. He lived in the Ash Ridge community in the 1920's, moving to hear Georgetown in 1933. There were 5 children--James E., Ralph W., Wanda, Gladys, and Ruth.

John R. married Mary Tamme in 1922. They lived in the Shinkle's Ridge and Georgetown communities. They had 3 children--Kathryn, John F. and E. Eugene.

Gertrude married Lowell McNeown on Nov. 4, 1922, ~~in 1923.~~ There were no children. They spent most of their lifetime in two communities--New Richmond and Mt. Orab. Gertrude passed on July 10, 1946 and is buried in the ~~Ash Ridge cemetery.~~ Mt. Orab Cemetery

THE AUTHOR'S GENEALOGICAL RECORD IN BROWN COUNTY, OHIO

The genealogical record of the Newman family in Brown County, Ohio, by James E. Newman, born December 22, 1920, son of Roy L. Newman, born April 10, 1897, son of James F. Newman, born April 30, 1866, son of David W. Newman, born October 21, 1834, son of Daniel Newman, born April 25, 1810, son of Joseph Newman, born January 11, 1762, who arrived in what is now Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio, in about 1797 or 1798. This arrival date is only an estimate, but several historical family records suggest that Joseph arrived in Brown County before 1800, ~~probably from Kentucky by way of the Cumberland Gap from Virginia~~.

Joseph Newman and his family came to what is now Franklin Township certainly before 1810. The Ohio 1810 census record, Ohio Library, Columbus, confirms this. His wife, Elizabeth, was born July 11, 1767, and they were married September 7, 1786. They had 13 children as follows: Sarah, born June 8, 1788; Eunice, born May 17, 1791; David, born December 25, 1792; Hannah, born September 24, 1794; Suzanna, born Marcy 30, 1796; Abner, born September 27, 1798; Margaret, born March 6, 1800; Joseph, Junior, born February 5, 1802; Andrew, born January 8, 1804; Elizabeth, born September 14, 1805; John C., born July 10, 1807; Daniel, born April 25, 1810; and Kuttury, born May 6, 1812.

I (James E. Newman) copied these records from the Joseph Newman family bible then owned by Fanny (Newman) Black, in November, 1962.

Both Joseph and Elizabeth are buried in the Abbott Cemetery located in the Abbott-Brown acre survey surrounding the so-called Iron Bridge community. Joseph died January 22, 1834 and his wife on October 9, 1850?. A broken headstone was located in the Abbott Cemetery by the writer in 1965 with Joseph's name on it but no further inscriptions.

Of this original family of Joseph and Elizabeth plus their 13 children, the following are accounted for: David, the eldest son, who married Ann Brown, daughter of Greer Brown, and lived and owned some of the Abbott-Brown survey land now (1960) owned by Frank Wilson and earlier by a John Brown (1880). Joseph, Jr., who died young on March 5, 1830, is buried in the Abbott Cemetery. Andrew, who married Sallie Wells, moved to Illinois in about 1832. Daniel married Rebecca A. H. Worstell. No further records were found on any of the 7 daughters or the other 2 sons, Abner and John C. All of Joseph Newman's family were accounted for by number in the Ohio 1820 census except for the eldest 3 daughters--Sarah, Eunice and Hannah. The 1810 census accounts for all family members except for the oldest, Sarah, then 23, and the youngest, Kittury, not yet born.

Daniel Newman was the youngest son of Joseph, Senior, born April 25, 1810, and married Rebecca H. Worstell on March 22, 1832. They had 6 children as follows: Sarah Ann, born February 26, 1833; David W. and twin brother, Abner L., born October 21, 1834; Mariah A., born October 16, 1836; Nancy P., September 4, 1838; and Margaret Elizabeth, born July 27, 1840.

Daniel Newman was involved in a murder in the early 1840's and left Brown County. This point needs further investigation, but the event is not questioned. No doubt, he joined other family members who had preceded him in going west. After Daniel's departure, Rebecca Worstell Newman remained in Brown County. The Worstell family of the Georgetown community consisted of 8 children with Rebecca being the youngest. She was born October 5, 1814; died ~~December~~ Jan. 17, ~~1854~~ 1855. There is some question concerning this death date. The writer could not locate a confirming grave marker. She is buried in the old cemetery at Georgetown in the Worstell family plot. Her parents' names were David and Abigail Worstell.

David W. Newman married Caroline Hennize on October 16, 1858. He died December 1, 1915. His wife, Caroline, died December 12, 1910, and both are buried at Shinkle's Ridge Church Cemetery. The only marker that was present in 1968 was the one for Charles C. Newman, the fourth son. David W. and Caroline had 6 children as follows: Albert A., born February 2, 1860; William L., born May 30, 1863; James F., born April 30, 1866; Louella, born July 12, 1868; Charles C., born May 3, 1878; and Ira L., born August 5, 1880.

James F. Newman and his wife, Myrtle, had a family of 6 children as follows: Elmer, born Jan. 4, 1890; daughter, Florence, born May 1, 189~~2~~1; Melton, born April 25, 1893; Roy L., born April 10, 1897; John R., born March 30, 1900; Gertrude L., born October 25, 1902. James F. died September 22, 1922, and his wife, Myrtle, born March 29, 187~~3~~1, died September 9, 1963. Both are buried in the Confidence Cemetery at Georgetown.

Roy L. Newman, third son of James F. and Myrtle Newman, married Lola Rae Schweickart on August 24, 1918. Their family consisted of 5 children: James Edward, born on December 22, 1920; Ralph Wendell, born on July 22, 1922; Wanda Jean, born on March 1, 1926; Gladys Naomi, born on March 21, 1929; and Ruth Louise, born on March 31, 1940. His wife, Lola, was the third child of Edward Daniel and Iona (Schatzman) Schweickart, born on June 23, 1899, near Brookville, Kentucky. The death date of Lola Newman was June 3, 1973, and the place of burial is in Confidene Cemetery at Georgetown, Roy L. passed away Dec, 3, 1979, James Edward Newman married Laurie Persis Haas on July 17, 1949. His wife, Persis was born on February 24, 1925, the daughter of Christopher C. and Eloise G. Haas. Their family consists of 3 children: Shelley, born on March 3, 1951; Roy Christopher, born on March 4, 1953; and Arnold Haas, born on September 26, 1958.

John R. Newman was born on March 30, 1900, the fourth son of James and Myrtle Newman, and died October 25, 1961. He married Mary R. Tamme on April 15, 1922. Three children were born to this marriage: Myrtle Kathryn, born on November 8th, 1922; John Francis, born February 5, 1924, and E. Eugene, born July 12, 1925.

Kathryn married Robert J. Straub on June 20, 1942. A son was born to this marriage, Robert J., born on July 5, 1943. Robert J. Straub, Jr., was adopted as Robert J. Newman by John R. Newman and Mary R. Newman on December 16, 1946. Kathryn married Karl F. Moore on October 3, 1946. Two children were born of this marriage, Kenneth E., born on March 25, 1948 and Kerry K., born on May 31, 1958.

John F. Newman married Betty June Shreffler on March 17, 1945. Betty was born on September 28, 1923, the daughter of Harrison and Bessie Shreffler at Winchester, Ohio. Their family consisted of one son, Gary Lee, born on January 19, 1947.

Elmer Eugene Newman married Jeanette Marion Eyestone on December 23, 1949. Jeannette was born on December 16, 1927, daughter of Fred and Susan Eyestone of Nashua, Minnesota. Their family consisted of three children: Donald Gene, born on September 11, 1951; Cheryl Ann, born on November 1, 1953; and Tammie Sue, born on December 8, 1962. E. Eugene Newman passed away on April 28, 1977.

A letter from Uncle Herschel Schweickart to Roy and Lola Newman
3 months before her death, April 9, 1973.

Dear Roy & Lola:

How is everybody this morning? Especially Lola. I haven't heard a word from anybody since I was down there.

I have rewritten this Newman history very carefully, so you can destroy the other one. This one is as near right as I can get it. Now if you can continue it from 1883 it should be allright.

In 1823 Joseph Newman was Justice of the Peace.
In 1825 Joseph Newman was Constable in Franklin Township.
In 1832 David Newman was Overseer of the Poor
That's all I can find.

History as written by Herschel Schweickart -

Joseph Abbott Senior was born in New Jersey in 1739. He married and moved to Virginia. To this union were born 8 children namely: Mary, Chloe, John, Rebecca, Eunice, Silas, Jane and Joseph. He served in the Continental army during the Revolution, and shortly after the war, in company with Greer Brown (who had also been a soldier) came to Straight Creek and located 1000 acres of Virginia Military Land, in one body, each taking 500 acres. This land lies in Franklin Township on both sides of Straight Creek at what is called the Iron Bridge. And being a millwright, Mr. Abbott went back to Virginia and worked at his trade for some years. Then he moved to Kentucky and about 1804 came back to Straight Creek where his son, John Abbott, already was (located) with the rest of the family, and settled where John E. Brown now lived where he remained until death. He is buried in the Abbott graveyard.

John Abbott, son of Joseph Abbott, Senior, was born in New Jersey on November 22, 1770; went to Virginia with his father, where he learned the trade of millwright. He helped his father build a mill in Virginia. His father gave him in pay 250 acres of land that he had located on Straight Creek. He came and picked out the land about 1792. He went with father to Kentucky, remaining until about 1800; came back to Straight Creek and built a cabin on his land where he lived by himself for 4 years.

On March 4, 1804, he married Hannah Reynolds, daughter of Joseph and Experience Reynolds, who settled in Jackson Township about 1802. Experience Reynolds was the daughter of Russell Shaw who founded Russellville in 1817.

John and Hannah Abbott had 11 children, namely: Lewis, Amanda, Eliza, Charles, Esther, Roxie, George, Elizabeth, John M., Elias and Lucy J.

John M. Abbott married Lettie Newman, 1836, the daughter of David Newman, and settled on Straight Creek ½ mile above the Iron Bridge, on the west side of the creek where J. Martin used to live. John M. Abbott lived here for 5 or 6 years, and then went to(Illinois in the 1840's. Also Andrew Newman married Sallie Wells and moved to Illinois about the same time.)

Ann Brown, daughter of Greer Brown, married David Newman, 1814, son of Joseph Newman. (Also) Jacob Newman built a log horsepower mill on the farm owned by Allen Hendrixson. The same farm (was) owned by Raymond Shaw a few years ago. Everyone taking corn or wheat to grind had to furnish their own horses. Wheat and corn was sifted by hand. Tom Harris bought this mill and moved it to his farm on west fork.

John Thompson, who at one time owned the Charles Abbott farm, built an early gristmill called the Abbott Mill at the old county seat. After Thompson's death, John Abbott purchased the mill and rebuilt it in 1832 or 1833,afterwards selling it to his son, Louis Abbott. John Abbott also build a sawmill nearby in 1820 which operated for many years.

Charles Abbott, son of John and Hannah Abbott, was a native of Brown County, and was born on July 15, 1809. His farm of 166 acres was located at the junction of Camp Run Road and Ripley and Arnheim Road, where the old county seat was located.

Charles Abbott married Sarah Brown in 1830. They had 3 children: E. C. Abbott, Lewis, and Levi T. Abbott. E. C. Abbott married Sarah F. Davidson, and was born in 1831. They had 6 children, namely: Flora K., wife of Isaac Rainey; Charles W., Henry T., Frank, Hester A. and Lena M. Abbott. Charles W. Abbott had 3 children: Agnes, Malcolm and Ruth.

History of Monmouth County New Jersey by Franklin Ellis first pub. 1885
p.805 Wall Township

Ocean Beach is the name given to a very popular summer resort and town which lies on the south side of Shark River, extending along its shore from the ocean beach to and above the Shark River bridge.
In 1872 twenty-five gentlemen then having summer cottages at Ocean Grove, purchased, through A. Bitner, Jr., several tracts of land embracing about one hundred acres south of Shark River, intending to have each four acres. The Peter White farm, which lay between this tract and the river, could not then be purchased. Subsequently, and before any improvements were made, Mr. White was induced to sell, and through Mr. Joseph Bayard, of Trenton the purchase was effected. The first purchase, made by A. Bitmer, Jr., Sept. 24, 1872, was from John Brown, Peter Brown, Anthony Brown, Issac Newman, Stephen Bennett, Samuel Ludlow and Benjamin D. Pearce, whohad purchased the tract, December 12, 1861, of Edward Brinley.

On the same date(September 24, 1872) Mr. Bitner purchased of James A. Bradley, of Asbury Park, one-eighth interest in the West Pond and tracts of twenty-five acres and eleven acres, and the same date of Richard Newman, fifty-eight acres. The second purchase was of the Peter White farm of two hundred and thirty acres, November 1, 1872, White reserving one acre which he had the right to select on any street or road then open; also nine acres of sedge or salt meadow adjoining, and one-fourth interest in West Pond. On the 11th of December, 1872, Joseph B. Yard purchased one-eighth interest in the West Pond of Joseph D. Newman, and October 24, 1872, one-quarter interest in the West Pond of Richard White. May 31, 1873, Mr. Yard bought of Charles D.S. White a lot of about eight acres. The White tract in 1790 was in possession of Jacob Wardell, who, by will dated June 23rd in that year, gave it to his son, Joseph Wardell. On the 1st of September, 1800, Joseph Wardell sold to John Lippet White six hundred acres of land lying on the south side of Shark River, bounded westerly by "Polypod Bogg" and lands of Joseph Fleming and John Newman. This tract John L. White, by will dated February 15, 1821, gave to Richard White and Peter White, viz.: "all my lands and bildins, to be equally divided between them" In November, 1837, Richard White sold his half of the farm to Peter White. On the 10th of August, 1820, West Pond, containing about fifteen acres, was taken up by Andrew Bell, surveyor-general, for Richard and Peter White and Joseph and David Newman.

Several of these pers names had a connection to Newman by deed, marriage, etc, from before 1800.

Dear Mrs. Bloys:

I promised to check the Somerset records for Newman and report back to you on this. After a thorough search of both the Grantee and Grantor books I find no listing until the 1840's for then a Charles Newman in Franklin Township. I also checked the guardianship records as well as Mortgage records to no avail.

I am sorry that this report has to end in such a negative tone. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Teresa Martin Klaiber

Dear Genevieve:

I am sorry about the research on your Newman being such a toughy. I have done some more searching with no results at this point.

I do feel that Joseph 1778 Shrewsbury is more than likely the Joseph 1813 dec'd. Also that Emanuel 1795 is more than likely the son of John 1768. I would also like to ask you at this time something that has been in the back of my mind about Brown County. Many of the New Jersey families that settled in the area of Brown, Adams, Scioto, etc. migrated from the Va. area which is now West Va. area A lot of the family names came from Hampshire, Frederick, etc. ~~They~~ Many of those families of course were from Jersey. Sometimes they were in Virginia only short periods before moves on westward. You might also like to check with the Southern Ohio Genealogical Society PO Box 414, Hillsboro, Ohio 45133 and see what has been submitted to their lovely collection.

I will continue to keep an eye open for information in the Monmouth County area. I hate to end a search in this frame at this point but will contact you in the future if anything relevent appears.

Sincerely.

Teresa

Although I made lots of mistakes copying the above I am sure you can read it. The longer I sit at this machine the more mistakes I make. I despair of being very good , ever. So please bear with me. Typing is a necessity. I have had tendonitis in my right hand since last Christmas from writing all of the seasons greetings to our friends. Typing doesn't bother it but longhand after one letter really sets it off.

Have you ever checked with the above genealogical society in Hillsboro, Ohio? I have not, and see no reason to do so unless no one else has. If you have, what information did you find?

I hired Teresa because I felt I was letting everyone down since I was unable to do the extensive research I had expected to do last summer. I wish it had produced ancestors for Joseph Newman but if there is any proof it is yet to be found.

Dear Linda,

I am very thankful at this season when such comes to mind, that I found you to communicate with. You have been so helpful. I am so glad that you also are of the Joseph Newman family. Now I don't feel that I am imposing on you.

I hope your husband is recovered from his accident and things are not so hectic for you. I guess everyone is busy this time of year preparing for the holidays. I hope you have a better year in 1982.

After the holidays are over and there is a lull (if you ever have such a thing) would you send me the names of the children of Eunice Newman. I would also like the dates that you have through that generation. Thank you for your lineage. I was curious as to whom you descended from. So Oritor Rice married a Lucas. I sometimes wish I didn't find these side families so fascinating. I have the names and whom some married for the children of David Newman and of course for Andrew but none for the other children of Joseph. I do so have the children as found in the census for Daniel and Abner, and Alex, John, and David listed for Joseph Jr. I just don't have any accurate birth dates or marriages. Do you have any more on any grandchildren of Joseph than I have?

Like everyone else I am too busy now to give genealogy any more thought until after the new year.

Merry Christmas to you and all best wishes.

Mrs. Roberta Anderson
PO Box 354
Warrenton, OR 97146

Dear Roberta:

Thank you for the copy of the Will for John Newman (1768).

After studying the information on the colonial Newmans of New Jersey which you have forwarded, plus what I have from other sources, particularly the American Genealogical Research Institute on colonial Newmans, I feel that there is a good possibility that John and Deliverence Newman could be the grandparents of Joseph Newman (1762-1834). Further, I agree with much of your speculation in the 26 January 81 letter, but from the Will and other information forwarded, I would speculate the following:

John and Deliverance
d. 1768

Children in order of birth

John b. 1730's (?) d. 1830
Joseph b. 1730's (?) d. (?)
Thomas b. 1730's (?) married 1753 (?)
Cathrine b. 1740's (?)
Emanual b. 1744 d. 1795
Mary b. 1740's (?)
Samuel b. 1750's (?)
David b. 1750's (?) d. 1817

It is clear that these children were not named in order of their birth in the Will. From the way the Will reads, I do not feel that David or Samuel could be the father of our Joesph Newman born January 11, 1762. But Thomas, John or Joseph could be. I speculate that these three are the oldest, but in what order is difficult to judge. Thomas could be the oldest if the marriage date of 1753 is correct. Also, the Will reads as if he is not in good family graces. The listing of John Sr., then John Jr., Joseph and Samuel as taxpayers in 1764 in old Shrewsbury indicates the listing of Samuel as inconsistent with the Will. I would suggest Thomas instead.

I would suggest securing the Will of John Newman d. 1830 first, followed by David d. 1817, then Ann (Kernes) Newman d. 1819 in that order.

The family reference that Joseph Newman's (1762-1834) father was named David could be an error, since several given names are common to each generation. Maybe it was David d. 1817 that served in the War of Independence. He would have been of proper age.

If a more thorough investigation of the John and Deliverence Newman family of Monmouth County does not reveal Joseph Newman's (1762-1834) lineage linking to everyone's satisfaction, then the investigation of William and David Newman of Somerset County would be in order.

There is one revealing piece of information in the John Newman d. 1768 Will. It is the Quaker background of his wife, Deliverence (a Quaker name) and the witnesses both being Quakers. In early historic accounts of Joseph Newman in Adams County, Ohio, he is listed as the first Justice of the Peace for Eagle Township, Adams County, Ohio, later to be Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio. He performed several marriages and he was also very active along with his oldest son, David (1792-1852) in organizing a church and school. The church was in the Quaker meeting house style, and Joseph Newman and family were very active in the leadership of these meetings. This strongly suggests that he had the Quaker tradition in his background. But no mention is made of him or his family as Quakers in these early historic accounts. Further, the possibility of the Quaker tradition may explain the lack of family references to the Revolutionary War as well.

These are additional reasons why I feel that John and Deliverence Newman of Monmouth County, N.J., could be in our Joseph Newman lineage.

Yours truly,

James E Newman

JOAN WOODGER
172 TACKORA TRAIL
RIDGEFIELD, CT. 06877

Dear Billie,

I have just acquired a history of the Demarest family published in 1938 by Mary & William Demarest. The following will hopefully be of interest to you:

"Eunice, daughter of Joannes Demarest & Anipel Thorpe.

Eunice married Green Brown, probably her cousin. After the Revolutionary War, having been in Virginia, he moved to Kentucky, then to Ohio. Eunice D. Brown died; and he married #2 Sally Davis; he survived her also. By this 2nd wife he had children: Ann W. (married David Newman); Lettice (married Silas Abbott); and John C.

Children of Eunice & Green Brown were: John G., James, Andrew, Ephraim, Israel."

No dates - however some clues:

Joannes (John) baptized 22-Sept-1745 in Schraalenburgh, N.J., apparently went to the vicinity of Cornwall, N.Y. there married Anipel Thorpe, daughter of Abner Thorpe & Eunice Brown, born 20-Nov-1754 probably at Woodbridge, N.J., where her parents had married & lived for a time. Sometime after 1783, John & his wife, with Abner Thorpe & his family, returned from Cornwall N.Y. to N.J., Woodbridge. Later they lived probably at Shrewsbury & elsewhere in Monmouth County. A stone in the Mt. Pleasant graveyard at Freneau, Monmouth Co. reads "Annipell Demarest, wife of John DeM in the 59th yr. of her age." She died March 8, 1813. What family they had is not ~~[illegible]~~ clearly known. It has been said that they had no children. On the other hand, it may be their family recorded in the U.S. Census, 1790, New Cornwall Town; John Demarest head of family; 2 males above 16, 2 under 16, 3 females. It is especially thought that a Eunice Demarest who married Green Brown was his daughter. They had it is said, 5 children, John, James, Andrew, Ephraim, Israel. They lived in Virginia. The Thorpes & Browns were the original settlers of Woodbridge, N.J."

"David Demarest bap. 30-Oct-1743, Schraalenburgh, N.J. & brother of Joannes, married Phoebe Austin, about 1770. Their son Charles is of not surely known record. It is supposed that he married Abigail (or Eunice) Thorpe, youngest daughter of Abner & Eunice Brown Thorpe & sister of ~~Annipel~~ Anipel Thorpe, who married his uncle. Abigail was born about 1784. Charles & Abigail Demarest had 2 children: Samuel C. & Eunice. Their daughter married Green Brown."

Hope you can sort this out. These are apparently 2 different Eunice & Green Browns.

Happy hunting & good luck.
Sincerely
Joan Woodger

Abner Thorp

Abner Thorp was born February 22, 1731, died December 4, 1812 according to the inscription on his tombstone, buried at Farmingdale Monmouth County, N.J. near a cross road called West Farms.

Abner Thorp, the pioneer, at the time of the Revolution, while living with or near his son-in-law, Silas Reynolds at Smith's Clove (now Monroe), Orange County, N.Y. signed the Association Test and enlisted in the quartermaster's department and was actively employed therein until the close of the war. He then retired to his farm in Monmouth County, N.J., where he died intestate. These words are on his tombstone, " A personal friend of the Father of His Country."

The Richard Stockton Chapter, D. A. R., has placed a bronze tablet at Abner's grave and holds memorial services there each year.

Rev. Joseph Greenleaf in his genealogy of the Greenleaf Family calls Abner Thorp "the French war correspondent of General, Washington."

Abner, the pioneer, married twice, but had issue by his first wife only. His first wife was Eunice Brown, 1738-1801, by whom he had fourteen or fifteen children. His second wife was Anna(   ), buried at West Farms; she was a childless widow in 1812, and in 1814 she sold to her stepson, Benjamin Thorp her dower right in land on South side of Manasquan River, N.J. See Deed Book at Freehold.

Eunice Brown was born November 15, 1738 died August 12, 1801 and was buried in the old graveyard at West Farms, Eunice was a daughter of Andrew and Sarah Brown (he was born 3 of 9 1705, died 1759 of Woodbridge, N.J. and a grand-daughter of George Brown who was born in Dalkeith, Scotland, 1654, and died in New Jersey 18 of 2, 1717.

On 13 of 2, 1693, George Brown married Anabel Gordon, widow of William Knox. Anabel was born in Scotland, 1661 and come to America unmarried having sailed in 1685 from Leith on the Henry and Francis. George Anabel had crossed the Atlantic on the same vessel at the same time.

Anabel Gordon married twice in Woodbridge, N.J. Her first husband was William Knox by shom at least one child, Jenet, who married Thomas Edgar: her second husband was George Brown. The Browns and the Gordons were Covenanters.

In 1779 the pioneer while living at Bloomingdale, precinct of Cornwall, Newburgh, N.Y., bought from Hendrick and Barnes Smock some land in Monmouth County, N.J. From this farm was sold the first marl ever marketed as ferlizer: and so this homestead was named the Marl Valley Farm.

pg153 Mr. John B. Thorp obtained title to this land, and when he died left a will dated 1841, giving loads and loads of marl to his neidhbors. This property is now known as the Longstreet Farm.

pg154 Several traditions cluster around this old homestead: one often told by George Washington Thorp is that General Washington rode one morning to the Marl Valley Farm on business and went into the house and took breakfast with the pioneer's family.

Fourteen children of Abner and Eunice Brown Thorp, the pioneers:

i. Annipel Thorp, born November 20, 1754, died March 18, 1813, married John Demarest; no descendants are of record ; see Branch one.

ii. Sarah Thorp, born August 2, 1756, married Silas Reynolds who died after 1827; see Branch Two.

iii. Andrew Thorp, born October 15, 1758, died January 3, 1827, married Susannah ( ) They settled in Kentucky and had nine children.

iv. Benjamin Thorp, born October 21, 1759, died August 25, 1814, buried at West Farms, N.J., in the same plot with his father and mother.

He was administrator of his father's estate. He married, he is spoken of as living in Newark, N.J.

Caution: Do not confuse this Benjamin born in 1759 with another Benjamin born 1745. Both were of Woodbridge, N.J.

Benjamin born in 1745 was a son of David Thorp who came from Wales to New Jersey in 1740. See Branch Four.

v. Grace Thorp, born April 1,1762, no further record.

vi. David Thorp, born April 27, 1764, married (1) Sally Davison and (2) Sally Laird.

vii . Elizabeth Thorp, born July 11, 1767, married Joseph Newman.

viii. Daniel Thorp, born January 24, 1770 , married 1790 Joanna Davison.

ix . Hon. George Bowen Thorp, born June 17, 1772, died about 1846, married (1) Nancy Davison of New Jersey, and (2) Julia Eliza Amos.

x. Hannah Thorp, born November 21, 1774, died March 19, 1861, married Luther Reed.

xi. Col. John B. Thorp, born November 13, 1777, married Hannah Davison, daughter of Esquire John Davison and his first wife, the widow English.

xii . Abner Thorp, Jr. born August 31, 1779, died November 9, 1861, married Mary Lawrence, born 1777, Mary often mentioned as Mary Townley Lawrence.

xiii. Ezekiel Thorp, born January 6, 1782, died May 29, 1833, married Abigail Thorp, a relative, born April 10, 1789.

xiv. Abi Thorp, married Charles Demarest; no descendants of record; see Branch Fourteen.

xv. Ezra Thorp is mentioned in the Greenleaf genealogy as belonging to this household; no further record.

The descendants of the pioneer Abner Thorp willin this article be grouped into Branches, each branch taking its title from the birth number of the child.

The record of the fourteen children registered above is taken in part from the old Family Bible of Abner Thorp, the pioneer, which in 1799 he gave to his son, Abner, Jr., on Junior's twentieth birthday, when Junior was about to leave New Jersey and go to Kentucky. This old Bible with its records of all births and some marriages and deaths is now owned by Mr.s. Edward Lane, 100 Oak Hill Avenue, Delaware, Ohio, whose great grandfather was Abner Thorp, Jr.

Supplemental material has been taken from memoranda kept by William Cook, son of Jesse and Ann Eliza Thorp Cook.

As authority or various relationships among the Thorp kin we cite also two documents recorded at Freehold, N.J., a power of attorney granted to John B. Thorp, merchant tailor of New York City, dated May 1, 1824, and a quitclaim deed dated May 31, 1827, and acknowledged in Hamilton County, Ohio. Both documents are signed by the same parties: namely, Andrew Thorp, Daniel Thorp, Joanna Thorp, Ezekiel Thorp, Abigail Thorp, Hannah Reed, Abner Thorp, Mary Thorp, Joseph Newman, ELIZABETH NEWMAN, and David Thorp and his wife, Sarah, being seven children of Abner, the and five husbands or wives of the pioneer's children, being twelve in all.

The pioneer had nine sons, but only three of them remained in the east: These were Benjamin (administrator) of Monmouth County; George B. (the alderman) of New York City and Orange N.J.; and John B. the merchant tailor of New York City, the other sons, six in number, went to Kentucky near, Maysville, not all going the same year; later they drifted northward across the Ohio River to Cincinnati.

Branch One

Annipel Thorp, born 1754, died 1813, was the first child of Abner and Eunice Brown Thorp. She married John Demarest; no descendants are of record. John Demarest was an ardent patriot during the Revolution but feeble health did not permit him to perform active service; his burial place is not known.

In an old burying ground at Mount Pleasant, N.J., there is a tombstone inscribed " Anniple Demarest, wife of John Demarest, died March 8, 1813, in the 59th year of her age."

Branch Two

Sarah Thorp, born 1756, was the second child of the pioneers Abner and Eunice Brown Thorp. She married Silas Reynolds who died after May 31, 1827. They lived during the Revolutionary War in New York, at Smith's cove (now Monroe), Orange County. In 1827 they were living in New York City. Silas Reynolds was a Revolutionary soldier.

Ten children of Silas and Sarah Thorp Reynolds:

i. Daniel Reynolds, born at White Plains, M.Y., February 18, 1776, died June 23, 1838, married May 28, 1803, Billach Jones , Born April 11, 1781, died April 8, 1853, daughter of Henry Jones of Rocky Forest, Newburgh, N.Y. Daniel and Billach are buried in a little old graveyard near Monticello. N.Y. They lived at Pleasant Valley, Ulster County. N.Y.
ii. Silas Reynolds married Sally Don Becker and lived at Newburgh, N.Y.
iii. Abner Reynolds.
iv. John Thorp Reynolds.
v. Eunice Reynolds
vi. Hannah Reynolds married a Decker
vii. Abba Reynolds Married a Decker, a brother of Hannah's husband.
viii. Billach Reynolds married a S______ ix. Mary Reynolds
x. Sally Reynolds Married Gardner Weed and lived in Gardnertown, N.Y.

Six children of Daniel and Billach Jones Reynolds:

i. Charlotte Fowler Reynolds, born March 21, 1804, died July 31, 1865, married January 2, 1830, Henry J. Devine, both buried in Strongtown Cemetery.
2. Caroline Reynolds, born June 17, 1808, died April 30, 1896, married in 1832 Eber Strong, born July 17, 1813, died August 21, 1901.
pg155 3. William Harvey Reynolds born September 22, 1810, died October 28, 1886, married August 7, 1838, Ellen Maria Walsh, born March 25, 1815, died May 1 1887, daughter of Asa and Abigail Ellsworth Walsh of Ellenville, N.Y., both buried in Mongaup Center Church Yard.
4. Catherine Ann Reynolds, born December 8, 1812, died February 19, 1900, married John W. Pierce on September 12, 1840; they lived at liberty, N.Y., and later in Chemung County.

5. Squire Embler Reynolds, Born October 18, 1818, died November 17, 1888, married June 17, 1840, Anna Eliza Burnham, daughter of Stephen Burnham. They lived at Monticello. N.Y.
6. Gardner Weed Reynolds, born November 11, 1822, died February 10, 1868, at Shellsburg, Iowa. He married in 1859 Mary Budd, daughter of Joseph Budd.

Rev. Charles Haight Reynolds, son of William H. and Ellen M. Walsh Reynolds was born 1842 and died 1898. He married Sarah Frances Van Inwegen, daughter of Hermanus and Hannah Cole Van Inwegen; they have a son, Juston O. Reynolds of Richmond Hill, N.Y.

Dr. Myron Herbert Reynolds son of Gardner W. and Mary B. Reynolds is chief of veterinary dept. state of Minnesota.

Branch Three

Andrew Thorp, born 1758, died 1827, was the third child of Abner and Eunice Brown Thorp. He married about 1779, Susannah (   ) probably in Howell Township, Monmouth County, N.J.

In 1782-83 they went from New Jersey through Virginia to Washington, county seat of Mason County, Ky. In 1828 Andrew was spoken of as "late of Howell Township, Monmouth County, N.J.

Nine children of Andrew and Susannah Thorp:

1. Katturah Thorp, born September 22, 1778, married Jesse Wood who in 1818 was one of the executors of the estate of Luther Reed of Georgetown, Brown, Co. Ohio. Luther was the husband of Hannah Thorp Reed.
2. Annapel Thorp, born April 10, 1781, probably the last child born in New Jersey; no further record.
3. John Thorp, born February 11, 1783, died December,   , 1878 in Ohio About 1811 he married Elizabeth Hall, died 1878 aged 81 years, daughter of John Thomas and Sarah Ann Lowe Hall of Mason, Warren County, O. John Thorp was a merchant first in Maysville, Ky., and after 1827 in Cincinnati, Ohio.
4. Catherine Thorp, born May 27, 1785, married Joseph Covert, no further record.
5. Sarah Thorp married Henry Craven.
6. David Thorp, married Catherine Jacobs, no further record.
7. William G. Thorp married Lucinda Ballard, no further information concerning William except that at Maysville, Ky. in the clerks office, there is a covenant dated June 17, 1824, showing that William agrees to give Walter Reed a slave boy named Wesley for nine years, " to cloth him well, to treat him well and return him well at the end of that time."

8. Ann Thorp, born November 6, 1788, married her cousin, John Davison Thorp (son of David and Sally Davison Thorp).
9. Abi Thorp married Clem Ballard. No further record.

The Thorp genealogy presented in this series has been compiled by Mary Brouse Schumch. (Mrs Adolph), a great-great-granddaughter of Abner and Eunice Brown Thorp.

Temple Ordinance Indexes Request

Genealogical Department
50 East North Temple Street
Salt Lake City, Utah 84150

This form may be used to request searches of the temple ordinance files (Temple Records Index Bureau [TIB], Computer File Index [CFI], Family Group Records Archive [FGRA]). You may request a search of these files for any of your direct-line ancestors—those appearing on your pedigree chart and their children. The purpose of these searches is to determine which, if any, temple ordinances have been performed for the ancestor you ask about. The cost of this service is $1.00. Please include payment with your request, and mail both to the address above.

TIB JUN 8 1981

We will search either the TIB or CFI or both, as requested. If the TIB indicates the existence of a record in the FGRA, we will search it also. If it is found that ordinance work has been performed for the individual you ask about, a photocopy of the record(s) will be sent to you.

Memo. for Mr, Chester Jones.

In Cemetery at Adelphia, Monmouth Co, New Jersey.

In memory of Aaron Chamberlain, a soldier who served during the Revolutionary war under Washington and died Jan. 21, 1818, aged 91 yrs.

Mary, wife of Aaron Chamberlain,
Died Dec. 25, 1826, aged 84 years.

In cemetary at West Farms, near Farmingdale, Mon. Co. N.J.
Private, on farm.

Abner Thorp.
Born on the 22nd February, 1731.
He entered the service of his country in the Quartermasters Dept. in the year 1776, and remained actively employed in the army to the close of the War of the Revolution.
He was an ardent and devoted Whig and the personal friend of the Father of his Country.
At the close of the war, he retired to his farm in Monmouth County, where in the discharge of every parental and social duty and in the enjoyment of a lively faith in the mercies of his Divine Master, he continued to dispense his benevolence until his pure spirit was summoned home on the 4th of Dec. 1812, in the 82nd year of his age.

Eunice Thorp, wife of Abner Thorp,
Died August 12, 1801, in the 63rd year of her age.

(This Abner Thorp has been claimed as an Orange County N.Y. man, but is apparently of the Woodbridge Throp's, as his wife seems to be Eunice Brown, of Woodbridge.)

In old cemetary at Oakhurst, Mon.Co. N.J.

Sacred to the memory of Frederick Maps, who departed this life January 9th, 1818, aged 62 yrs. *
Also of Sibyl, wife of Frederick Maps, who departed this life March 17th, 1847, aged 64 years.

(I have learned from an old bible record that Sibyl, wife of Frederick Maps, was Sibyl Riggs.)

Copy of the 2nd letter from Teresa Martin Klaiber, dated 23 Sept. 231981 1

Dear Mrs. Bloys:

I have completed a search of the Sussex County records for the Newmans for you. Below is a excerpt of deeds that I felt would give information on the family of John, Emanuel, David with mentions of Joseph.

The first ;one is the deed mentioned in your letter of September 8, 1981 Bk F-3, page 407, dated 4.23.1771.

Edmond Martin to David Newman recorded October 26, 1771. Made Apr. 3, 1771. David Newman house carpenter received for the sum of 170 pounds 10 shillings a tract of land in Hardiston Township by deed granted to Edmond Martin by Walter Rutherford Apr. 8, 1768 and recorded at Perth Amboy Book AB #6 page 152 and returned to Edmund Apr. 1771 to be recorded Book GN6 page 208. This deed was signed in the presence of Joseph Barton and Benj. Decker.

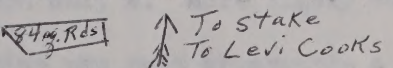
Nov. 18, 1794 between Leve Cook of Hardwick, yeoman and Mary his wife and Joseph Newman of Hardwick yeoman. Whereas Isaac Morris of the city of Phil. Pa. merchant in and by indenture dated Nov. 15 for consideration did grant and convey unto Levi Cook and Joseph Newman as tenants land in Hardwick Township approximately 1,100 acres. Whereas Joseph by a certain deed pll indorsed the indenture bearing Nov. 7 last and did divide half part to Levi Cook for the sum of 184 pounds at about 84 acres. Signed by Levi Cook; Mary Cook; Joseph Newman; David Tompla; John Kasse; Jeremiah, Zenas Smith.

Dec. 5, 1809 Abraham Newman of Knowlton, Sussex County and Elizabeth his wife and Joseph Newman of Hardwick land for the sum of $167.50. Witnessed in the presence of James Van kirk, Barnabas Jwayze. Recorded Aud. 23, 1814.

Mar. 13, 1819 Joseph Newman Jr. to Joseph Newman Jr. both of Hardwick Township, Sussex County, for the sum of $112,50 land in Oxford Township Sussex County, part of land bought of Peter Burge deceased,by Abraham and Elizabeth his wife. Sighed in the presence of John Ogden, Morris Sharp. Recorded Aug. 21, 1819.

June 9, 1817 Emanuel Newman to David Newman formerly of Sussex County did die inteste by legislature of New Jersey June 9, 1817 divided amound the childrenof said David Newman all properties due unto him. The children having mutually agreed did consent to Martin Ryerson and John McCoy and Ezekiel Dennis ~~of said~~ be commissioned to survey and examine the quality of said lands and to divide same. Now this indenture June 10, 1818 that Emanuel and Jane his wife from the township of Wantage and James Newman and Margt. his wife and John Nwman and Anna his wife, James Congleton and his wife Elizabeth, of Hardiston and Joseph McDaniel and Jane his wife of Frankford Township for the consideration of $1.00 paid by David the other child and heir of David decedent of Wantage Townshi acknowledge satisfaction. The land containing 133 acres. Signed by Emanuel and Jane Newman; James and Margt. Newman; John and Anna Newman; James and Elizabeth Congleton; Joseph and Jane McDaniels. Wit: Walter LShee; Richard M. Lawrence. Written June 20, 1818, recorded July 1, 1820.

Joseph Newman to Joseph Newman of Hardwick Sept. 20, 1821---Joseph Newman and his wife Leah and Joseph Newman and his wife Mary of the lands in Hardwick (no fee is mentioned). No witness signed by Joseph Casy Esquire. Diagram given.



Feb. 8, 1780 Anthony Bradwick to Emanuel Newman for the sum of 1200 pounds land in Hardiston Township signed in presence of Augustine Anderson, Partick Thompson and Robert Ogden. Apr. 13, 1782 recorded.

Emanuel Newman was Mortgagor with Robert Ogden Mortgagee in 1794. P226 Sussex County.

Sept. 17, 1774 The Honarable James Earl of Preth by Thomas his attorney to David Newman. The Honorable James Earl of P of the Kingdom of Great Britain. ~~Lnd;~~ Lands in Sussex County sum of 54 pounds 11 pence.

Morris County was formed from ~~Sussexx~~ Sussex county in 1753 there I have also checked early Morris county materials and find that th is no other materials listed for Newmans. This included a search of early Union and Morris county history books.

I ~~k~~ also checked early deeds of Hunterdon County with little help. I found no Newman families settled in that area.

The Shrewsbury records are contained in Historical and Genealogical Miscellany by Stillwell which you mintioned as doing. I mentio this as your letter states Jerrymiah b. 1880 d. 1849 in BOOK OF THE DEAD as Presbyterian.

As for William son of David as you mention I have located the following East Jersey deed Liber E3 page 287 recorded Sept. 24, 1788 listed as David Newman to John Stockton son and heir of William Newmanlate of Somerset County for the sum of 200 pounds land which was sold to william Newman deceased by Richard Stockton deceased by Indenture dated 1701. These lands lying approximately 300 acres in Somerset County dated Apr. 5, 1729. In the presence of Benj. Rand, John Pridmore and John Mackoy as pro. Secr.

Going back through your notes I find that your ratables do not start until 1779. Below are earlier listings:

1773-4
Hardiston, Sussex County:
Arthur Newman
David Newman
Emanuel Newman

South 1773-4 lists:
Hugh Newman, Salem Co.
John, GloucesterCounty
Richard, in Burlington Co.
William, in Evesham, Burlington Co.

1778-80
John Newman, Middleton, Monmouth Co.
John Newman, Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co.
John, Son of John Newman also listed as Shrewsbury, Monmouth
Joseph Newman listed as Amwell, Hunterdon Co.
Joseph Newman listed as Shrewsbuty, Monmouth Co.
Peter Newman, Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co.
Samuel Newman, Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co.
Samuel Newman Jr. Shrewsbury, Moumouth Co.
Thomas Newman, Shrewsbury, Monmouth Co.

You have 79 and the 85 rates listed.

I wish to speak of David Newman now. After doing deed work on David and again deeds do not mention Joseph as a son I do not feel that this is the line. This would lead us back to John Newman again who died in 1768. But this would have left Joseph only 6. More likely Joseph would have been a grandson of this John.

Jerrymiah Newman (Jeremiah) as you mention was most apparently a mimister or rather listed as Justice of the Peace: I find the following documents I Jeremiah Newman one of the Justices of Peace in and for the county of Moanmouth do certify that on the 21 day of Sept. 1824 at Howell in said county, I married Garrett Newman of Howell Township Monmouth and state of New Jersey and Hannah Smith of the same county and town and state above written and them did pronounce them man and wife agreeable to to laws 88 Recorded Mar. 10 1825.

I Jeremiah Newman Justice of the Peace of Monmouth certify on Dec. 11 1827 at Howell I married Dennis Newman and Rebecca Tice both of Howel Township. You will find this is the Jeremiah in your notes that has children John Lewis and a daughter named Deliverance. Which is a clue that he is of the line of John and Deliverance.

In the year 1822 I find a later Joseph in Monmouth Marriage License: I Wade Little one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county do hereby certify that on the 19 th day of Sept. 1822 at Howell in said county of Monmouth I married Joseph Newman of Howell in the county of Monmouth and state of New Jersey, to Faith Herbert of Howell aforesaid and then did pronounce Mr. and wife agreeable to the laws of the state of N.J Recorded the 17th of Dec. 1822 by Wade Little.

Of marriages I note that in your notes listed is Mary McDaniel m. Thomas Newman. You will notice in the above deeds that Joseph McDaniel married Jane Newman daughter of David of Sussex. They resided in Frankford Township whereas Mary and Thomas were listed in Monmouth Co.

You can also note the following about the deeds: Monmouth Deed K 323 and the deed for Sussex of Edmond Martin and David mention of Emanuel are the same persons.

There is several mention of carpenters throughout the papers as is the mention of John in C 160 Monmouth and the Sussex deed above mention for David.

I have yet to check the Somerset records both orphan and deed and will report to you on this shortly. I also want to assure you that I will return your papers to you in order. I will make a copy for my files and return yours under separate cover.

Sincerely,
Teresa Martin Klaiber

Mistakes are all mine.

Dear Mrs. Bloys:
I promised to check the Somerset records for Newman and report back to you on this. After a thorough search of both the Grantee and Grantor books I find no listing until the 1840's for then a Charles Newman in Franklin Township. I also checked the guardianship records as well as Mortgage records to no avail.

I am sorry that this report has to end in such a negative tone. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Teresa Martin Klaiber

I was snowed under with responsibilities and did not respond to the first communication until after the second had come. I then wrote for more research on the John Newman children in Howell Twp. in Monmouth County and to be billed rather than pay in advance. I have probably disappointed her by the slowness of my replies. If I hear any more I shall keep you informed.

Genevieve Bloys

Dear Linda
I'm not collecting donations for this research. The expense is all mine but thanks so much for offering. I am so sorry about all the problems at your house. When you have time send me a chart showing your relationship to Joseph Newman. I am curious.

In courthouse records Freehold, NJ many Newman records. In "NJ in 1793" by James S. Norton are 3 Joseph, 1 David & other Newman names. Another Joseph Newman family was in Va. & he was a Rev. War. Soldier. Therefore its questionable if this Joseph was even in Shenandoah Co., Va. or mar. in Uniontown, Fayette Co., Pa.

Dear Linda:

I wish to thank you for the information on my great grandfather, George Anderson Harris, born 13 March 1839 (?), married Jane Cox of Augusta, Kentucky, 20 May 1861 (?), died 27 April 1883.

I do not know if you have interest in information about Brown County Civil War soldiers. G. A. Harris went into the Union Army in the fall of 1861 after the crops were harvested, according to family stories about him. He was in several Kentucky-Tennessee battles, including Chattanooga and later Chickamauga, then on toward Atlanta when he became ill. He was sent home on an illness furlow at Christmas time, 1964. It was later determined he had contacted TB or consumption.

His wife, Jane (Cox) Harris, had a brother, William (Billy) Cox, that served at the same time. He died from wounds received at Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

I am accumulating information on the George Anderson Harris family,

Yours truly,

Jim Newman

PANGBURN LETTER

Volume I
Donn E. Wagner, Editor
5245 Walton Street, Long Beach, CA 90815
Number 1

This first issue of the PANGBURN LETTER is published at the cost of the Editor. The intent is non-profit and is to be used to diseminate information to others interested in the PANGBURN lines. Input from readers on their data is the most important function of this publication.

Ve will start by delving into one of the main controversies - the spelling of the NAME. Early Dutch records in lbany and Schenectady County, N.Y. how PENBERN, PANBERN, PAGBURN, ANGBERN and finally PANGBURN. Later e have PANGBORN, PANGBORNE, ANGBOURNE and PANGBURN. This list ould go on ad nauseam but all the ariations seem to be actually the am [illegible] amily if we go back far enough.

own records of Oyster Bay, N.Y. eveal the earliest record of our urname. A "PETTER PANGBORNE", cordinder, resicing in Oyster Bay, on) May 1682 indentured his 2nd son in ond PANGBORNE as an "apprintize") John Rogers, Husbandman of the me town.

w Jersey seems to be the next landg place of the family PANGBURN. ny records are found of this surname Manmouth and Middlesex counties.

later have a move to Allegheny unty, PA by part of the family and om there to Brown County, Onio. other branch of the PANGBURNS move om New Jersey to Albany and henectady Counties, N.Y. These are ely my observations and an over plification of the moves of the IGE IS. Obviously, there were rations all over the country at ious times.

, that is briefly the way the ration seems to have taken place.

There is much written on the various relationships, but how much is fact and how much is conjecture - - we wi leave to others.

This publication will print data submitted by anyone who has PANGBURN information, - and perhaps by sharing with each other--our bits of information, no matter how sketchy, we will be able to put together the PANGBURN story.

We hope to continue this newsletter, but to do so we must have YOUR materi on PANGBURNS - (no matter how you spell it!) I'll ask only that you include a 20¢ stamp - we will stand the cost of the printing for now.

****

Since Editors should have some privileges, I'll start off with my PANGBURNS. Any corrections or additions are welcome. Some of the dates don't make sense but "I take 'em as I get 'em!"

Richard Fremon, 32 Barn Owl Dr.,
ckettstown, N.J. 07840 writes:

A many times Great Grandfather of mine, one Charles Rowlison, married a Mary PANGBORN 28 Jan 1760 at the Scotch Plains (N.J.) Baptist Church. His son Isaiah was probably Mary's son, but could have been the son of Charles' first wife. Perhaps someone could help Mr. Fremon on this???

Mr. Fremon has also included some miscellaneous PANGBURN data to share with his fellow researchers.

The early N.J. PANGBOURNS evidently came in through Woodbridge, which was founded in 1666. The PANGBOURNS evidently started arriving during the few years either side of 1700 and some of them, at least, had previously lived in New York City. A William and his sons Richard and Peter are identified as first settlers of Rahway. Richard is known to have been there as early as 1698 and to have married Lehdya, daughter of John CONGER, who arrived in Rahway even earlier than that. Edmund and Stephen evidently arrived in Woodbridge shortly after 1700. They and their wives became members of the newly organized Church of Christ there between 1708 and 1710. Edmund's wife was Lydia and Stephen's wife was Joanna Thornell. There is a record of the birth of Edmund's son John in 1704. Edmund died in 1711.

The following is some additional data extracted from one of Mr. Fremon's letters:

POSSIBLY FATHER OF OUR SAMUEL?

There was a Samuel PANGBORN who (1) bought land from John Shotwell in 1743, (2) sold land to George Thomson in 1744, (3) was mentioned as the former owner of some land in the will of Spencer Elston in 1755 (this land was in Woodbridge), (4) witnessed the will of David Campbell, weaver, of Woodbridge in 1760, (5) witnessed the will of John Morris, Yeoman, of Elizabeth Borough in 1762, (6) with his wife, Martha, administered the estate of William Mars, farmer, of Middlesex County, in 1779, (7) witnessed the will of John Rawlison of Woodbridge in 1776, (8) witnessed the will of Moses B. (a relative of the Shotwells) of Woodbridge in 1784, (9) witnessed the will of Thomas Baker, yeoman, of Elizabeth Township in 1787.

A few other small items - -

Peter PANGBORN was in Col. Thomas Farmer's Colonial Regulars of Woodbridge in 1715.

Stephen Pangborn's wife is shown as Joanna Thornell in some records and as Joan Tuttle in other places.

NJ mar. 1665-1800 Stephen + Rebecca Emley 29 Nov 1742
Stephen + Anna Montgomerie 18 Mar 1754

Stephen PANGBORN, born about 1695, was son of Stephen Sr. and Joan. Stephen Jr. was married to (1) Rebecca IMLAY (d. c1741 in Upper Freehold) and (2) Anna MONTGOMERIE. Stephen and Rebecca had sons Lines and William and a daughter Rebekah Jemsen. Stephen and Anna ended up living in the South Ward of Perth Amboy. Stephen Jr. (1) was executor of his father-in-law's estate (William Imlay) in 1741, (2) with Robert Imlay witnessed the will of Joseph Kinnan, cooper, of Upper Freehold, (3) with Robert and Rebekah witnessed the sill of Mary Snow of Trenton in 1747, (4) participated in the inventory of the estate of Richard Stevens of Upper Freehold in 1745, (5) was mentioned in the will of Robert English of Freehold in 1768, (6) witnessed the sill of Alice Imlay of Upper Freehold in 1761, (7) witnessed the will of Robert Montgomerie of Upper Freehold in 1766 (he was father-in-law to Stephen Jr. and Robert English), and (8) died intestate in the South Ward of Perth Amboy in 1774. Some other Stephen Pangborn witnessed the will of John Rawlison in 1776.

Richard PANGBORN was alleged to be a son of William. Richard was listed in the New York City Census in 1696. He was a first settler of Rahway in 1698, at which time he leased a house and land from Jefry Jones. In 1709 he witnessed the will of Stephen Tuttle, cordwinder (shoemaker), of Woodbridge and in 1710 he witnessed the will of John Conger, a planter, of Woodbridge.

IMMIGRANT CORNER

Vol. No.2 Sept 1983

Name was probably derived from PANGBOURNE, a village or town in Berkshire, England. itonal information; Peter PANGBURN was born about 1640. There is a record of a Pieter PENGBORN (age 48 yrs.) who appears on a list of soldiers defending Fort New York in the year 1689. He was a member of Captain Jacob Leisler's Co. and his place of birth is shown as Oxfordshire, England. On Aug. 25,1676, he was appointed a "currier" and in 1682 a sealer of leather. He had owned ~~la~~ land in Newtown, Long Island prior to April 18, 1684 and leased land for a shop in 1689. He was made a freeman of New York City as a carman June 30,1696.

Pat Darland research: The following was written by Mrsl Melvin(Vivia Nancy Fogo) Pangborn.

THE PANGBORN FAMILY

The Pangborns were early English settlers in this country. Several ancestors were soldiers in the Revolution. One of them being confined by the British in some of the Wallabout prison ships.

The first knowledge we have of any particular member of family is of Peter Pangborn and his wife Grace of Newton, Long Island, New York, 1668. Their children consisted of six sons, Peter Jr., Richard, Stephen(our Line), Edmond, Ephriam and William.

Stephen Pangborn married Joanna Tuttle of Woodbridge, N.J.. Their children consisted of seven sons, Joseph, Gideon, Timothy(ourline), Samuel, Stephen, John and Nathaniel. The first knowledge we have of any particular member of this family is of Timothy Pangborn. His wife's maiden name was Partridge. They lived on the banks of the AuSable River, near the town of Essex, Essex Co., N.Y. not far from Lake Champlain. Their family consisted of one daughter, Elizabeth, and 5 sons Libeas, Joseph, John(our line), Nathaniel, and Thaddeus.

More is written of this line on Page 1 Vol. 2, No. 2
Pangburn Letter Sept. 1984

1816 this family moved to Ohio, near Columbus.
This family lived in Ill. , Iowa, Missouri and Kansas in some of the same places that our line did- Samuel b. 25 Aug. 1748

Dear Ms. Wilson,

Linda Worstell gave me your name, and I am writing yoy to see if you can help me.

My maiden name was Worstell,and I have become interested in genealogy and I am trying to find out about the Worstells.

My great-grandfather was John Price Worstell, born in Ohio in 1817. His parents were born in Pennsylvania, and I believe they were Matthew (born between 1774 and 1784) and his wife Rachel Price (b1778). John Price married Sarah C. Skinner in Massilon, Ohio in 1842 and in 1850 they were living in Milan, OH with their three sons. In 1855 he remarried in Massachussets, giving New York an his residence. All his descendents remained in NY until recent years.

My grandfather was the youngest son, Gaylord M., born in 1849, probably in Milan. He died in 1896 when my father,his only son, was small so I knew practically nothing about that side of my family until I started to do research.

I have read through all the Worstell Civil War pension records in The Archives, and everything else printed that I can get my hands on here without finding proof of John's ancestry or of Matthews connection with the Worstell/Worstall family in PA. Would you help me sort out the various branches of the family by filling out the enclosed sheet to the best of your ability? If you are not absolutely sure of something just put a ? by it.

I have collected over 250 family group sheets, and have about 175 of them sorted into 5 main family groups: Matthew who came to Steubenville, Joseph who settled in Clermont Co, Isaac who came to Noble Co., David who was in Adams Co (later Brown Co.) and John whose descendents live in Zanesville and are the only ones who retain the Pennsylvania spelling of Worstall. I think I have found all the original settlers.

If you are interested I will be happy to send you what I have found on your branch and any further information I find.

Sincerely,

Joan W. Carter

I am particularly interested in hearing from you - you are the first one I have found who is a descend of David. I haven't found any others from Matthew, but lots & lots from Joseph and several Zanesville ones and a few from Isaac.

I think David & Matthew may be brothers. Matthew lived in New Hope PA - right on N.J. Line!

In the course of looking thru phone books I have found a number of Worstell/all´s who either have not answeed my letter or who have moved so that my letter comes back to me. I would really like to make sure that I have found all the branches of the family before I go back to the roots, so I´m adding a list of those people. If you know who they are, I can ignore them,and only go after the unknowns.

Seventh Day Baptists in West Virginia, including the Wood bridge town and Salemville Churches in Pennsylvania and the Shrewsbury Church in New Jersey By Corlis Fitz Randolph pub. 1905

pg. 35" On the 8th of August, 1789, the church sold the meeting house to a man by the name of Reed, to whom the members also sold their farms; and a few weeks afterward the majority of the families of the church set out "in order to setle in the State of Verginey""The above meeting house was the Shrewsbury Church.

pg.31 " The emigrants settled on White Day Creek in what is now Monongalia County,West Virginia. Here they tarried for two years or more, . The new settlers were disappointed, however, in their land, which according to Morgan Edwards, was obtained through a man named Reed".
" In 1785, Reed and Ford entered lands in Monongalia County aggregating 10,000 acres; in 1786 John Reed entered in the aggregate, 20,400acres on the waters of Big Steer Creek in Monongalia County; and in 1787, he entered an aggregate of 21,200 acres on Ten Mile Creek in Harrison County."
Samuel Fitz Randolph persuaded the new comers from N.J. to cross the Pa. border to a tract of land lying on the waters of Ten Mile Creek, a branch of the West Fork of the Monongalia River, some fifty miles beyond White Day Creek.

Abstract
Pension: Alexander C. Moore. MD. S 11091

Application filed on 15 Sep 1832 in City of Washington, District of Columbia, where applicant resides. Age 78 yrs old. He enrolled in militia in 1775. His Lieutenant was John Tanley. At beginning of war,. declarant enrolled in MD Militia attached to company commanded by Capt. Miles Low in 4th Regiment commanded by Col. John Addison. He was stationed in Upper Marlborough, Prince George's Co, and mustered out June 1779. Enlisted again and marched from Upper Marlborough to Annapolis where they received their arms, and from there under command of Gen. Smallwood, marched to Baltimore and received orders to go to the assistance of General Wayne at Paoli. When they reached within 3 or 4 miles, they were informed of Gen. Wayne's defeat by retreating Army and pursued the British and Hessians with whom they had a slight skirmish. They made good their retreat and halted at the Red Lion and shortly after marched to Stoney Point. Served 4 months and returned home and rejoined his militia unit. Continued duty until the month of May 1780 when another draft was made on his regiment for the whole company to proceed down the Potomac to repel attack of Lord Dunmore in Alexandria, then called Bellhaven. Remained 9 weeks then returned to Upper Marlborough. Was in active service 6 more months until War ended. He was never in any battle with the exception of the skirmish before mentioned.

He was born in Prince Georges Co in MD in 1754. He was living near Upper Marlborough when entered service and since the Rev has lived on the spot where the City of Wash now stands, and now lives in the City of Washington.

Statement of Sarah Moore Sr. filed 4 Sep 1848 in Rockbridge Co, VA. Aged 71 years. She is widow of Andrew Moore who was a Capt. in the VA Line of the Continental establishment in what was called Virginia Corps of Riflemen. She believes he entered service some time in year of 1776 as an Ensign, and continued in service for three years. and was a Capt. in said Corps at time he resigned his Commission. He was a citizen of Augusta Co "which now constitutes a portion of Co of Rockbridge." She believes he was in all the seven engagements or battles which immediately preceded Saratoga and in many minor engagements. He marched through the States of PA, NJ and NY.

She married Andrew Moore on 31 Mar 1775, and he died on 14th of May 1821.

Letter on file from S. W. Moore, dated 5 Mar 1849, regarding the statement of his mother, Sarah Moore Sr. Notes he has the patent granted his Father, Andrew Moore in 1809 and signed by Pres. Maddison (sic) for a quantity of land in State of Ohio.

The file also contains a response to letter of Mrs. Amizatta White of Huntington WV, dated 30 Jun 1925 in which staff of War Department reports that Andrew Moore, while residing in Augusta Co VA in 1776, was a Minute Man in Capt. John Hays' VA Co. Was commissioned 1st Lt. the following winter in the same county, the 9th Virginia Regiment and was in both battles of Saratoga. In the fall of 1777. he was detached and served as Capt. in Col. Daniel Morgan's VA Regiment, in summer of 1778, was Capt in 9th VA Regiment. He resigned in spring 1779.

In 1808 Andrew Moore was referred to as General, but no explanation is given as to title. He died May 14, 1821. He married March 31, 1795 in Rockbridge Co VA, Sarah or Sally, dau of Andrew Reid.

Burt Moore's statement on 12 Mar 1833 in Pickens District, SC. About time of commencement of war he volunteered under Capt. James Hamilton of Col. James Wood's Regiment of Spartenburg District Militia to go against the Indians. He "found his own horse, rifle, clothes etc and was employed to spy the country and patrol from one fort to another, from one station to another." Served 1 year. He volunteered again under Capt. Payne and was with him most of 3 years. He "found his own horse and was on scouting expeditions against Tories and Indians on frontier of SC. When Col. Ferguson overrun the upper part of the state, went with a number of others to the mountains and joined the troops commanded by Col. Shelby and was marched with them over the Yellow Mountains onto Kings Mountain and was in that battle." He was with Capt. Parsons against the Tories until Capt. Samuel Earle raised a company of volunteers. During service with Earle's Company they took many prisoners and killed Mayhorn and Lindsey and Hughes and others. He was constantly in service, most of time employed in upper part of SC. During all this time found his own horse, gun and clothes and went wherever he believed he could promote the good cause. Believes he had the character of a faithful soldier.

Claimant was born in Halifax Co in State of VA, his father moved to Spartanburg District in SC when he was 8 or 10 years of age. He lived in Spartenburg District till the peace of 1783, then moved into Pendleton District where he has lived ever since.

Deposition of Mary Moore, District of Pickens, SC on 12 Mar 1849. Aged 68 years last November. She is widow of Burt Moore, a Pvt. in Revolution. She thinks he lived on Pacolet River then and heard him say he entered service when he was 16 years old. That he drew a pension. She was married to Burt Moore in Pickens District (then Pendleton) by a Baptist Minister name of John Chastain on 1 Feb 1797 which she "recollects particularly from the fact that she was only a little over the age of 16 years when she was married, and was born in 1780 and also from her recollection of her brother, John, being born the following March and the births of herself (Mary Glenn) which was her maiden name and that her brother John Glenn will be seen by a memorandum hereunto sent of the Family record kept by her father and mother. Her first child was born on 10 day of Nov following her marriage, and her next William, the 26th Oct only two years afterwards." Her husband died 23 Apr 1836.

Pension: Charles Moore [This file information is filed with Charles Moore above, but is clearly a different Charles Moore.]

Deposition of Charles Moore on 3 June 1833 in McClain Co, ILL. In 1779 in month of February he substituted in place of David Butner under Capt. James Cruize's Co. Afterwards he was assigned to Maj. Mountflerance to work out his tour at blacksmithing where he remained 3 mos. In July 1780 was drafted into service under Capt. Benjamin Smith, under Col. Matthew Bradon. Marched southward and fell in with Gen.l Morgan on Catawba River. In a few days they were marched to Kings Mountain where they fought with and defeated Col. Ferguson. Principal Commander at this battle was Col. Shelby and Co. Williams. The latter fell in the action. Was sent to help guard some prisoners in Salisbury where he was discharged. He now lives about 900 miles from Salisbury and does not know of any person living who can confirm his service.

He was born in the State of VA, in Hanover County, on 11 Jan 1763 . He declared that his eldest brother who removed to Alabama many years ago has family Bible with his birth record. When called into service he lived on the Yadkin River, Rowan Co NC, in the district of Salisbury. He moved from there to East Tennessee on French Broad River, in Cooke Co. From there ;moved to state of Ohio and from there to state of Illinois and settled on waters of Little McKennan 24 miles east of Fort Clark in McClain Co where I now live. Names of some of neighbors who can vouch for his character are Francis Willis, Amos Watkins, James Rabourn, Samuel Arnold, Warren Watkins, William Paul , Matthew Bracken, Daniel Meak, John Oatman.

first, Elizabeth Guthrie on February 5, 1828; married secondly, Charity Sidwell on May 20, 1845; married thirdly, Mrs. Caroline (Bartholomew) Mick on May 30, 1863; fourthly, he married Nancy Gordon.

Jacob Middleswart settled on what was known as Bradford's Bottom near the mouth of Eagle Creek which was quite a little settlement in early times. The land then belonged to Ignatius Mitchell, of Kentucky, Jacob being only a renter. Afterwards, he moved with his family to Jackson Township, near the Adams County Line.

He volunteered his services in the Revolutionary War before he was eighteen years of age, in March of 1779, at Washington Co., Pennsylvania, serving six months. He volunteered again in March, 1780, serving another six months. Again, in 1782, he volunteered, and after serving three months, was commissioned an Ensign of the Navy, which is equivalent to a Second Lieut. in the army. His last service as Scout and Guide under Colonel William Crawford, was in June, 1782, when Col. Crawford was captured and burned at the stake. Ensign Middleswart, being young, active, and daring, made his escape. He was allowed a pension upon his application, executed April 25, 1834, while a resident of Brown County, Ohio. Jane Martin, his widow, was allowed a pension on her application, executed November 2, 1838.

MOORE-COCHRAN

Robert Moore, Sr., was born in 1731, in York County, Pennsylvania, and died in 1805, probably in Mason County, Kentucky, before the family came to Ohio. (But his death may have occurred in Adams County, Ohio). In 1754, he married Sarah Cochran, who was born in Pennsylvania and died in 1807 in Brown County, Ohio, with burial in the Red Oak Cemetery, five miles north of Ripley, Ohio. Children:

William Moore, born in 1754, married Keziah Baldwin, born January 1, 1783, died January 15, 1835, the daughter of John Baldwin and Mary Elizabeth Currey.

Robert Moore, Jr., born in 1756.

Andrew Moore, born June 9, 1759, in York County, Pennsylvania, died April 20, 1845, in Putman County, Illinois, buried at Union Grove. He was married January 8, 1793, in what was then "Ohio County, Virginia." (now West Virginia), to Elizabeth Shepherd, oldest daughter of John and Martha Nelson Shepherd. She was born at Shepherdstown, Virginia, February 14, 1774, and died at Union Grove, Illinois, February 17, 1858.

James Moore, born in 1760, died in 1839, married in 1787, Elizabeth Buchanan, born in 1760, died in 1827. They lived in Brown County, Ohio.

Nancy Moore, born in 1761, married William Baird, Jr.

John Moore, born in 1762, died in 1814. He married 1st, a lady named Marshall; secondly, he married Jane Williamson.

Samuel Moore. No other details.

Moses Moore, born in 1767, died in 1852, married Elizabeth Glendenning. They lived in Brown County, Ohio, and she was a sister of Elinor Glendenning Inskip.

Jane Moore, born January 1, 1770, in Bedford County, Pennsylvania, died October 3, 1820, in Brown County, Ohio, with burial in the Baird Family graveyard. She was married September 13, 1796, in Brooke County, West Virginia, to George Baird, born May 15, 1771, in Path Valley, Pennsylvania, died Dec. 15, 1838, in Brown County, Ohio, with burial in the Baird Family Graveyard.

Rachel Moore married George Willet. No other details.

Sarah Moore (Susannah) married John Finley, born July 10, 1772, in York County, Pennsylvania, died in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania 1794. He was a Lieut in the 6th Regular York Co. Militia. They were married July 28, 1796.

Margaret Moore died in 1818. She married Abraham Shepherd, son of John and Martha Nelson Shepherd. Abraham was born August 13, 1776, at Shepherdstown, Virginia. Abraham's second wife was Harriet Kincaid whom he married October 19, 1819. She died November 10, 1884. He had ten children by the first marriage and two by the second marriage. His father was a private in Captain William Cherry's Company, 4th Virginia Infantry, from April, 1777, to March, 1778. The Regiment was commanded by Col. Thomas Elliott and Major Isaac Beall.

Thompsons Historical Collections of Adams Co., O. Vol 1 pub. 1982

Robert Moore was a Collector for Bedford County, Pennsylvania, in 1775-1776. During the battle of Long Island, New York, on August 27, 1776, he was in Captain Richard Brown's Company under Colonel Samuel Miles. On December 10, 1776, he was appointed Court Martialman in Captain Thomas Buck's Company, Colonel William Parker's Regiment of Militia, Bedford County, Pa.

RICHMOND-WALKER-WISER

John Richmond married first, Elizabeth Walker, secondly, he married Mary Wiser. He was of German descent, migrated from Monmouth County, New Jersey, settling near Aberdeen, where, about 1818, he built and operated a grist mill on Eagle Creek, known in later years as Young's Mill. In 1812, Elizabeth Richmond Cooper, daughter of John Richmond, came with her husbnad, William Cooper and twelve children via wagon and tram, from their native State of New Jersey and located at Aberdeen, Ohio. John Richmond's children were: Elizabeth Richmond, who married William Cooper; Kaziah Richmond, who married Jeremiah Ellis; Mariah Richmond; Silas Richmond; Wesley Richmond, born October 8, 1813, married first, Elizabeth Dailey, married secondly, Catherine Maseritz, born December 20, 1820, and died June 3, 1845. Alice, Johnson, Jane and John Richmond, Jr. John Richmond is the great-great-great-great grandfather of Barbara Bowman, our correspondent.

WADE-WASHBURN

Zepaniah Wade, born in 1767, in Maryland, died January 1, 1838, in Adams County, Ohio, with burial at Manchester, Ohio. He married on March 1, 1794 (or 1795), Mary Washburn, born in 1776, and died April 19, 1859, at Manchester, Ohio. Children:

Christina, born November 29, 1795, died August 2, 1880, married April 1, 1825, Samuel Trenary. Christina was the first white child born outside the stockade at Manchester, Ohio.

MARGARET MOORE and ABRAHAM SHEPHERD

Margaret (Peggy) Moore was the youngest daughter of Robert Moore, Sr. and Sarah Cochran. She was born in Bedford County, PA and her exact date of birth is not known. It has been assumed that she was their youngest child; her brother William having been born 15 March 1777. After the family moved to Ohio she married Abraham Shepherd whose sister, Elizabeth, had married her brother, Andrew Moore, in Ohio County, VA. Some information on the Shepherd family can be found in the chapter on Andrew Moore and Elizabeth Shepherd. The following biography is taken from "History of Brown County, Ohio 1883" by W. H. Beers and Company, page 360:

"Mr. Shepherd was born August 13, 1776, at or near Shepherdstown, VA, a town laid out by his grandfather. He received what was then regarded as a good education. When he was nineteen years old, his father left Eastern Virginia, crossed the mountains and settled in West Virginia. In early manhood Abraham engaged in the business of surveying. About 1798, he was for a time in the vicinity of Mayslick, Ky., and not long after crossed the Ohio and made his home in what is now Brown County. He married Margaret Moore in 1799. On the north side of the Ohio he first lived near where the Red Oak Presbyterian Church stands, and afterward built a brick house about two miles from the site of Russellville, and operated the mills afterward known as Pilson's. In the War of 1812, he raised a company and served as Captain. In 1817 he moved to Ripley, and operated the mills on Red Oak, about one mile from the town. In 1825, he added steam power to these mills. In connection with others he built the mill one mile farther up Red Oak.

"In 1803, he was elected as a Representative in the Legislature, and served as a member of the Lower House, in all, six years. In 1815, he was first elected to the State Senate, and served in that body six years. He was Speaker of the House in 1806 and Speaker of the Senate in 1816, 1817 and 1826. His name is signed as President of the Senate to the act organizing Brown County. In1818, he resigned his position as Senator and became the first Clerk of the Common Pleas and Supreme Courts of Brown County, a position he occupied until 1824.

"In 1816, he was a Presidential Elector on the James Monroe ticket. After the organization of the Whig party, he became a Whig and was a great friend and admirer of Henry Clay and his American system, and was consequently in the minority in Brown County. In religion, he was a Presbyterian, and long held the office of Ruling Elder in that church. In 1834, he moved to Putnam County, Ill, where he died in 1846, in the seventy-first year of his age."

The names and birth and death years of the children of Abraham and Peggy Shepherd are taken from the book: "Duke-Shepherd-Van Metre Family" by Samuel Gordon Smyth, page 229. It has been found that some of the information contained in this book is inaccurate. The marriage dates are taken from Brown County Courthouse records. We have not yet researched the descendants of Peggy and Abraham. The information that we have follows:

Copy of a letter from William Moore, Oxford, Benton Co., IN to his brother Andrew Moore, Hennepin, Putnam Co., IL:

Oxford, Benton Co., Indiana
April 29, 1845

"Dear Brother and Sister -- I now embrace the opportunity of writing to you. Probably the last time that I shall ever write. I am yet in the land of the living, and enjoying tolerbly good health. I have had no more word from you except from John Shepherd who told me not long since that he saw you last fall. I would be very glad to see you once more in this world. I would go to see you this summer, but don't feel able to go alone and know of no person to go with me who would care to go. I have just returned from Presbytery at Crawfordsville and we had an unusually large meeting with much appearance of great good to be done. I have sold my farm and am living with David McConnell. My son David and daughter Jane are living in Iowa. Sarah and Ann are living in Ohio yet. The friends here are all well. I wish to be remembered to Abraham Shepherd and the friends generally. Let me hear from you. Direct your letters to Oxford, Benton County, Indiana.

William Moore

"To Andrew and Elizabeth Moore, N. B. David McConnell is postmaster at Oxford and I live with him."

JAMES P. MOORE - Page 303, farmer, P. O. Decatur, is a son of Samuel and Betsy (Gilliland) Moore, natives of Virginia and Pennsylvania respectively. He (Samuel) came to Adams County with his father, James Moore in 1815. James was a native of Rockbridge County, Va. and ranked among the early pioneers of Adams County; he died in 1835. Samuel is at this time in the 77th year of his age. His wife (Betsy) died in 1862. The subject of this sketch was born on the homstead in Liberty Township in 1830. Securing such education as could be had in the schools of the day he followed a teaching career for twenty years in the district schools of Brown, Adams and Champaign Counties. He was married to Miss Mary A. daughter of William B. Ellis in his native township, Adams County, in 1856. To them eight children have been born, seven of whom are living, viz: William E., Samuel A., Louis E, John T. Lorena, Ella C. and George H. Mr. Moore moved to Brown County in 1869, and settled on his present estate, consisting of 157 acres, valued at $40 per acre. He is Township Trustee and school director, and an Elder in the Liberty Presbyterian Church. He was appraiser of the township in 1880, and served on the committee of electrors, and has always taken an active interest in public affairs. Politcially , his is a Republican

Dear Linda:

How nice to hear from you. Thought you had been forced into early retirement on genealogy. Should know there is really no cure for the addiction. I have felt several times that I have found out about all I am going to about MOOREs and should write it up and quit on them. Then I hear from another one or turn up new material and I'm right back into it again. Will make the additions and correction you sent - thanks. Have no idea who the 23 year old Abba and year old Shary in the 1860 Mortality schedule were. Would guess that little Shary was a grandson of either Shary (John Sherman) or Isaac.

I have guilt feelings about not doing MOORE brides - makes me so mad to get into a family genealogy and find only the males traced - so I have been backtracking and seeing what I can find. Much more time consuming than just following the one surname.

Ran across this in a book on Clermont Co. Cemeteries: Felicity Cemetery:

William S. Moore - Assistant Surgeon 61st OVI
born 13 Dec 1829, died in the Battle of Gettysburg 6 July 1863
Sarah C. Moore - wife of Wm. S. - 1834-1911

So you can add this to your sheet on Wm. Moore and Mary Curry. Didn't know he was married, not recorded in Brown Co. and the Clermont Marriages here are only to 1850 and he was still at home in 1850 census. Was looking for a record on his sister, Almira, who m. John S. Fee and was living in Clermont when her father's estate was settled. No luck on her.

Rex Finley, descendant of a Sarah Moore and John Finley, wrote me this summer looking for proof that his Sarah was the daughter of Robert Moore,Sr. and Sarah Cochran. So I now have three sets of "facts" on this line! The only thing they agree on is date and place of marriage, 28 July 1796 Ohio Co.Va. He had written to Pat Donaldson for help but hadn't heard from her at the time he wrote me. He has Bible records from Sarah Moore Finley that proves dates plus five children and their spouses. John Finley had been married before and divorced and the children from this first marriage are listed in records by Mrs. Elma Pollock who did so much of the DAR research. According to Mr. Finley's records this family never came to Brown Co. with the rest of the family but settled in Delaware Co. Would explain why I have never been able to find anything about them in the Brown Co. material available to me. I believe his is the right one and have added it to the fgs but finding documentary proof is a different matter. Enclosing updated fgs - all sources are not listed but we can document all the info on it. It is amazing (to me) how much misinformation is contained in published genealogy.

I wrote to Barbara Langford a couple of years ago but no reply. Wanted to know if she had a death date for James Martin Middleswart. Have a copy of his Will but not the date it was entered in probate which would help some. Offered her the history on the Middleswarts that we have compiled. Hal Middlesworth of Detroit and I worked on it together for some time. His 3 or 4 gr-grandfather, John Middleswarth of Snyder Co., Pa. was brother of Jacob. His line changed the a to o and ours dropped the final h. Was fun working on the Dutch records. Have done all I plan to on them. Would like to fill in some of the blanks I still have on children of Jacob. One of the Moore searchers who lives near Cincinnati looked Barbara up and she said she didn't like to give out any of her information as she plans to write a book and is afraid someone would steal it. Data was pub. in Hist. Coll. of AC, O. pg 130 and all errors are there from old DAR records. Such is life!

Br.Co., OH CP Final Rec. Bk 14 :535 14 Aug. 1869 Jeptha Moore by grd. George Surgery. Jeptha declared a lunatic 28 Dec. 1869), incapable to contract or be contracted with, incapable to manage his person or estate for more than 5 yrs. Margaret Moore, a woman of notorious bad character for chastity, fraudently, forcibly & without consent compelled him to marry her & since this pretend mar. has had numerous men, a house of ill fame where lewd people congregate for base & lewd purposes, had sexual intercourse with divers persons unknown. Margaret denies he was a lunatic when they mar. & stated there wasn't fornication or house of ill fame, 19 Feb 1870. Jeptha ordered by jury to pay costs, divorce & alimony.

This is the line that so much incorrect information has been recorded about in the LDS Archives and several present day descendants are trying to clear up.

AMOS MOORE - b. 22 Aug 1762, York Co. Pa. Came to Brown Co. and had an Inn in the northeast corner of Pleasant Twp. He was son of WILLIAM MOORE and MARY DRAKE. William was older brother of Robert, Sr. who settled in SE part of the county. Amos was married in Franklin Co., Pa. to:
SARAH FOREMAN - b. 7 June 1764, dau. of Andrew and Mary Foreman.

Amos was administrator of his father's will in Franklin Co., Pa. 23 Feb 1791. Have a copy of it and the names on the Archives Sheet for him are taken directly from the Will; only dates are filled in by guess and recorded as fact. The oldest son, Robert, was married and had left the county - he is listed as father of William Moore who m. Mary Curry. Neither the Archive Sheet or the biography in BEERS checks out on him.

The Archives sheet lists 6 children of AMOS and SARAH but we haven't been able to prove but ~~two~~ 3: EBENEZER and ANDREW. — add dau. Margaret Hall -

1820 census - Pl Twp, AMOS MOORE - over 45, female over 45, and 1 male 25-45 and female 15-25. Believe this is Ebenezer and his bride, Matilda Scott m. 1 Jun 1820. → or Ebenezer + Margaret -
(Andrew living in Clark Twp)
1830 census - Pl Twp, EBENEZER MOORE - wife and 6 children and an elderly couple Probably his parents.
(Andrew living in Pleasant Twp)
1840 census - EBENEZER still in Pl Twp, only 4 children; Margaret Ann, oldest, had m. Wm. Meyers 1 Apr 1839. Elderly couple not there. So believe AMOS died sometime in 1830s.
(Early 1830s Andrew and family joined a Morman colony)
1850 census - Hamilton Co., Ind. - EBENEZER and ELEANOR, with son Amos age 27.
1860 census - EBENEZER living with Margaret and William Meyers in Jackson Twp. Brown Co., Ohio (?Living or just visiting?)

Have been unable to locate Amos from the time his father's will was settled until he shows up on the Deeds. Not in the 1803 special census of either Adams or Clermont Co.

Brown Co., Oh. transcribed records of Clermont Co.: Book 1:
p. 278: 9 Mar 1809, Thomas Moore and Margaret his wife to Robert Moore - 574 acres on Straight Creek.
p. 304: 1 Nov 1809, Robert Moore and Mary his wife to Amos Moore - 500 acres.
p. ??? 20 Dec 1810, Amos Moore and Sally his wife to Daniel Reynolds, 100 acres.

This is the same land changing hands 3 times. Was part of Entry No 1942 which was transferred by Collector of non-resident lands for Second Collection District to Thomas Moore.

Andrew Moore m. Rebecca Curry, sister of Mary who m. William Moore. Believe there is merit in the theory that William and Andrew were first cousins but info in both LDS and BEERS has been proved incorrect. Sure would like to know the answer to this puzzle. Thomas and Margaret Moore, above, were my 3-gr-grandparents, Robert and Mary my 4-gr, and Robert, Sr. and Sarah my 5-gr. MLA

New info: daughter Margaret m. John Hall, 24 Dec 1823 - Bk B-2, p 127

The Brown County Genealogical Society
Box 83
Georgetown, Ohio 45121

Dear Sir:

This letter is in response to an invitation by the Brown County Genealogical Society of Gerogetown, Ohio, for people who have Brown County ancestral lines. The invitation to submit inquiries and interesting bits of history or stories appeared on page 54 of the TRI-STATE TRADER, April 8, 1978.

I think this is a wonderful thing for the BCGS to do and laud them for their interest in their particular area. It could conceivably result in enriching the lives of many Brown County residents and non-residents alike.

Long before the State of West Virginia was carved from the State of Virginia in 1862, four young men, descendants of James Moore, made their way in 1810, from Morgantown, Virginia down the Cheat River to the Monongahela, to Pittsburgh, to the Ohio and thence to Ohio to Clermont County, Stonelick Township. They were John, Joseph, Anthony and Levi.

One of Levi's sons, James and Cynthia (Osborn) Moore, had ten children: Ely, Albert, Allen, James, Wright, Vayer, Aurilla, Sylvia Jane, Frances and Phoebe Ann. James and Cynthia removed from Clermont County to Brown County about the same time the U. S. Grant family did and took up residence in Perry Township. They are both reportedly buried in the Five (Lower) Mile cemetery.

James, the son of James and Cynthia served as a sergeant in B Co., 48th Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry, while his younger brother Allen, served in the 82nd Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

I am most interested in corresponding with anyone, who can exchange data relative to any of these Moore's, for I have been collecting data pertinent to this family for forty years and now wish to include it in a permanent hard back book.

Because mu uncles had served under General Grant at one time or another and other military connections, I had the great honour and responsibility during the 1972 U. S. Grant Sesquicentennial, to muster men for a battle reenactment in Bethel, Ohio and a parade in Georgetown, Ohio. This was a very rewarding experience and I was glad to be a working part of it.

If you publish the above data, may I have a copy of it for my file?

Thank you again for making this service available. I think it is real nice.

Sincerely,

William A. Moore

Copied this in Georgetown this summer. Didn't write him as I don't have anything to offer him. As he was writing a book I doubt that he would want to give away his information

pendence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

Copied from Tombstone Inscription of Abner Thorp's Grave, located in a Private Cemetery, near West Farms, Monmouth County, State of New Jersey.

"Abner Thorp, born on the 22d February, 1731. He entered the service of his country in the Quartermaster's Department in the year 1776 and remained actively employed in the army to the close of the War of the Revolution. He was an ardent and devoted Whig and the personal friend of the Father of his Country. At the close of the war he retired to his farm in Monmouth County, where, in the discharge of every parental and social duty and in the enjoyment of a lively faith in the mercies of his Divine Master, he continued to dispense his benevolence until his pure spirit was summoned home on the 4th of December, 1812, in the 82d year of his age. 'O, sing unto the Lord a new song, for he hath done marvelous things; his right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.' --Psalm98, first verse."

A framed Memorial of Abner Thorp, a fac-simile of the above copied Tombstone Inscription is preserved and in the possession of the applicant at the present time. This said Memorial has been handed down through four generations of Thorps.
